THREE EUROPEAN NATIONS AGREE

Will Not Form Mexican Policy Without First Conferring With the United States.

AWAIT AMERICA'S NOTE

Time for Presenting Note to Powers Has Not Been Determined but Probably Will Await Result of Sunday's Election.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Three European nations, Great Britain, Germany and France have agreed to adopt no new policy toward Mexico until the government of the United States can submit for their consideration a definite plan for the future treatment of the revolution-torn republic in Central America.

That a request of the powers to await a proposal regarding Mexico from this government had been made, and that the three great European nations had yielded to the request late today was announced by Secretary Bryan. President Wilson was en route to Washington from the South when the announcement was made and the Secretary of State did not indicate what would be the nature of the contemplated negotiations with the foreign governments. The President arrived here late tonight and planned to confer early tomorrow with Mr. Bryan.

When the note to the powers will be presented has not been determined but the belief prevails that rasonable time will be given for the announcement from the Huerta government in Mexico of the result of last Sunday's election for a new government.

No Definite Time.

That this announcement will be that the election of a new President failed because of the insufficiency of the vote still is the expectation of officials here and it is believed President Wilson and his advisers are proceeding on the theory that some concerted effort must be made by all the governments interested in Mexico to rid that nation of the domination of General Huerta.

Though interest in this development overshadowed all else in official circles here, the flight of General Felix Diaz from Vera Cruz to refuge on the American gunboat Wheeling was much discussed and tonight Rear Admiral Fletcher was notified by Secretary Bryan that political refugees can be shielded only temporarily.

Admiral Fletcher, who is in command of the American ships in Mexican waters, notified the Washington government early in the day that Diaz with two Mexican companions and an American newspaper man had been granted asylum on the Wheeling after pleading that their lives were endangered. The admiral asked for instructions as to their disposition.

The State Department first instructed him to inquire of the Mexican refugees where they wished to go. Later the department notified the admiral that within a reasonable time they must be transferred from the American war vessel. They may be placed aboard a commercial liner bound for Havana or New York, as they choose.

It was believed here tonight that Diaz and his friends would ask to be placed aboard an American-bound ship and that until such disposition could be made of them Admiral Fletcher would permit them to remain aboard one of the United States ships in Mexican waters.

International Co-operation.

As to the future treatment of Mexico by the United States and other nations, there has been much discussion both here and abroad. President Wilson in two public speeches, has outlined a general policy of international co-operation with all Latin-American nations and from France and England have come assurances of a desire to co-operate with the United States upon some concerted effort to restore peace and good government in Mexico.

Germany also has signified a desire to enter such a co-operate peace-making enterprise.

That all the foreign nations are looking to the United States to take the initiative is certain and the situation presented makes it imperative that this government submit a plan.

The United States some days ago requested the powers to await a proposal and since that time the note has been in preparation. It is declared certain that whatever the plan, it will demand the elimination of Huerta and the government which arose after the revolt against Madero and provide for a constitutional election in Mexico which can be recognized by the United States.

Will Send Aid.

With Great Britain, Germany and France joining the United States in a demand for Huerta's resignation and for a free and fair election, it has been confidently asserted by high officials here that Huerta would yield and that a new government could be established without intervention.

This would necessitate of cessation of all hostilities and co-operation on the part of Mexican revolutionists.

An evidence of the sincerity of France in the proposed co-operative Mexican policy today came in a request by that government that the United States send a warship to protect her nation's interests on the Pacific side of Mexico. The State Department received the request late in the day and tonight was making plans to accede to it.

John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union tonight telegraphed the President that the Latin-American diplomats at the Southern Commercial Congress had been profoundly impressed by his Mobile speech. Mr. Barrett suggested that

DEADLOCK OVER CURRENCY

Proposed New Central Bank Idea Will Likely Cause a Hitch in Committee Proceedings on Administration Bill.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A threatened deadlock in the Senate Banking and Currency Committee over the proposal to substitute a government-owned central bank for the regional reserve bank plan in the administration currency bill today became apparent when the committee began executive consideration of the measure.

Discussion was confined to the central reserve bank scheme, and while no vote was taken the debate disclosed six Senators for the government-controlled central bank and six for the administration regional system.

The five Republicans on the committee, Senators Weeks, McLean, Nelson, Crawford and Bristow, argued for the central bank scheme. They were joined by Senator Hitchcock, who has opposed the administration bill in many of its provisions. Senators Reed and O'Gorman swung into line with the other Democrats for the administration plan.

The vote was delayed until tomorrow, and Chairman Owen, at the close of this evening's session said he believed the administration plan finally would be adopted.

"Both sides have shown a conciliatory disposition," he said, "and I believe the vote tomorrow will dispose of the matter to everybody's satisfaction. The matter will be thoroughly discussed before a vote is taken."

Members of the committee tonight expressed the belief that, in view of

Nineteen Battles Between Strikers

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 28.—With a state of insurrection declared, and State troops on the way to the scene of hostilities, to enforce martial law, the 19th battle between mind guards and striking miners of the Southern Colorado coal fields was waged from daylight until 8:30 o'clock tonight in Berwind and Hastings canons and the hills adjacent.

Angus Alexander, a Hastings guard, was killed, and seven were wounded, including two children at Tabasca.

Marsnal Clinton Robinson, of Hastings, was shot in the foot, and four strikers were wounded, two seriously, but their names are not available.

The town of Hastings is terrorized. Women and children are congregated in the power house, and bedding and food has been taken there by mine guards. The camp is said to be riddled with bullets as a result of today's bombardment and similar reports are received from the camps of Delagua and Tabasca.

Telephonic communication with the camps in the Ludlow district late today was restored.

Troops from the Arkansas Valley, who were to entrain from LaJunta for Trinidad, delayed their departure because of reports received by them that strikers were preparing to dynamite their train. The troops were held at LaJunta, to await the arrival of the National Guard from Denver, according to reports here tonight.

The strikers congregated in great numbers about the Colorado and Southern station at Ludlow, and at the Santa Fe station at Trinidad. They denied any intention of molesting the troops.

Troops from the Trinidad company of the National Guard today entered the mine camps at Berwind, Tabasca and Hastings, where, by orders of the military government, the saloons were closed.

LIVELY SESSION IN ALABAMA CITY

First Convention of the Woman's Auxiliary to Southern Commercial Congress.

DIPLOMATIC DINNER GIVEN

American Manufacturers Should Give Latin America What They Want and Not What United States Think They Need.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 28.—Two speakers at sessions of the Southern Commercial Congress today emphasized the necessity of the American business man becoming better acquainted with needs of the people of Latin-America and then giving those people what they need and want. John M. Parker, honorary president of the Congress, seemed to strike a popular text when he declared: "Our manufacers should offer these people what they want and not what he thinks they should have." Senor Federico Alfonso Pezet, representing Peru, said America should send men into Latin-America to ascertain what was needed there.

"That the United States would have keen competition from Peru in its effort to get Latin-American trade after the canal is opened, was shown by the attitude of Senor Pezet in his speech. Peru he said, was in better position to gain by the opening of the canal than was the United States and the country was doing everything it could to get ready to handle that trade. A wealth of ideas as to what might be done to better fortify the American business man against competitors after the canal is in operation today was given in many speeches at the three sessions.

The first convention of the woman's auxiliary to the Congress was opened and women orators told how, by a system of education in the South, they hoped to lend a strong arm to Southern merchants in going after trade. The auxiliary adopted a resolution opposing an amendment to the constitution granting women the vote and in favor of State action.

Enlivened Session.

The morning session was enlivened by a resolution offered by Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, in which it was provided that the United States Congress be urged to investigate the Colombian claims that the Panama Canal Zone was improperly acquired by the United States.

After mentioning the statement of President Wilson yesterday that the United States would gain no more territory by conquest, he said that Colombia's claim should not be ignored and if well founded the United States should make reparation. His resolution was referred to a committee.

W. D. Boyce, of Chicago, author of "Illustrated Central America," offered the unique idea that a great American city should be established on the zone and that it should be a "free" city—free of all export and import duty. This, he said, would aid in the fight for this new trade.

This was Pan-American night, featured by a "diplomatic dinner" early in the evening and a programme com-

Methodist Men and Ministers Meet

Indianapolis, Oct. 28.—"That we now have a Christian man in the White House; an administration of Sabbath observance in all the departments of the government," and that President Taft's administration "represented more subserviency to the liquor interests, and other bad combinations than any other in American history," were the declarations of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, of Topeka, Kas., secretary of the Temperance Society of the Methodist church, who today addressed the National Convention of Methodist men here.

Dr. Wilson declared that President Taft waited until the last minute before vetoing the Webb liquor bill and said his administration "went down to defeat beneath an avalanche of indignant protest, such as never has been duplicated in the United States."

"A great Christian leader is the Secretary of State now," continued Dr. Wilson. "Our former Secretary of State used to send out letters to all American consuls notifying them of brewers' conventions and ordering them to investigate and see what they could do to increase the exportation of American beers. William J. Bryan never will do that."

Dr. Wilson said under the present administration all grog shops in the Panama Zone have been closed and the battleships of the navy forbidden to carry alcoholic liquors. He declared the cause of temperance had received a great uplift.

The negative attitude of the public educational system toward religion is the most important reason for the slow growth of the church, according to Dr. Thomas Nicholson, of New York, secretary of the board of education. He said there were many educational institutions in which religion was not even an elective study. He also named the automobile as one of the causes for poor church attendance on Sundays.

The speakers at tonight's meeting were Bishop W. E. Anderson, of Cincinnati; Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, San Francisco, and Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, of South America.

MRS. EATON'S FATE SOON TO BE KNOWN

Argument in Case Will Commence This Morning, and Will Take All Day.

TO JURY THIS AFTERNOON

Famous Case Will Likely be History by Noon Tomorrow—State Introduced Additional Evidence as to Guilt.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 28.—All evidence in the trial of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, charged with poisoning her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph J. Eaton, was in when the afternoon session today closed and the fate of the woman probably will be entrusted to the jury before tomorrow evening.

William A. Morse will occupy two hours of the morning session with his argument in favor of acquittal. District Attorney Barker's plea for conviction is expected to be ended in time for Chief Justice Aiken to read his charge to the jury before adjournment.

The widow of the naval officer has been on trial since October 14th, the prosecution having occupied seven days and the defense four in the presentation of testimony. She today completed her own evidence about noon, apparently undisturbed by her ordeal of two days and a half on the stand. Under cross examination she contradicted some of the statements made by witnesses for the prosecution, including those of her daughter, Dorothy, and her mother, Mrs. Harrison.

Medical Expert on Stand.

Before the defense closed a medical expert, Dr. Arthur E. Austin ,of Boston, testified that in his opinion the poison that killed Admiral Eaton was taken at or after the afternoon meal Wednesday, March 5th, and it was in one dose. Mrs. Eaton on that day was visiting in Medford, according to witnesses for both the State and the defense.

In rebuttal for the prosecution this afternoon Dr. Harry F. Cleverly, of Scituate, testified that Mrs. Eaton and the Admiral brought a child to his office in August, 1909, and that he diagnosed the illness a chorola infantum. The child died the next day. Dr. Cleverly denied the statement of Mrs. Eaton that she offered him $1,000 if he would cure the child.

One of the last witnesses was Chas. Henry, a workman of Norwell, who said that he saw Admiral Eaton three days before his death and that he appeared in good spirits. He admitted under cross examination by the defense, that on Wednesday when Mrs. Eaton was starting for Boston, he heard the Admiral say, "There goes a lovely woman."

SHREVEPORT RATE CASE UP.

Supreme Court to Decide Much Fought Over Question.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The Shreveport rate cases involving the first attempt of the Inter-State Commerce Commission to require railroads to change rates wholly within a State, late today came before the Supreme Court of the United States for oral argument.

Railroads traversing Texas and Louisiana are seeking to have the court set aside the Inter-State Commerce Commission's order requiring them either to reduce their rates from Shreveport, La., to Texas points or to increase the Texas rates for similar distances. The railroads say the Texas railroad commission required them to reduce the State rates.

The Louisiana railroad commission was allowed to participate in the argument and the time for consideration of the case extended so that it will consume most of tomorrow.

H. M. Garwood, of Galveston, Texas, opened the case for the railroads today.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—Plans to file the will of Adolphus Busch, which disposes of an estate estimated at $50,000,000, today were deferred. Charles Nagel, who drew the will, said it would be filed Wednesday.

OUTLINES

Dr. Muret, friend of Priest Schmidt, was found guilty of counterfeiting by a jury yesterday.

The grand jury will investigate charges made by Sulzer and his crowd in New York concerning graft in the Tammany circles.

Secretary of Navy Daniels told an audience at Atlanta that Wilson's speech at Mobile would go down into history in big red letters.

A lively session of the Southern Commercial Congress was held yesterday. Many propositions were introduced and sent to committees.

The Banking and Currency Committee has about struck a deadlock over the new currency bill. Six Senators favor the new central bank idea while the other six favor the original plan.

England, Germany and France have shaken hands with Uncle Sam and agree not to form any Mexican policy without consulting him. Thus showing that they feel the matter is up to this country.

All evidence in the trial of Mrs. Baton for the poisoning of her husband has been given. Argument will begin today and the fate of the widow will likely be left in the hands of the jury this afternoon.

WILSON'S SPEECH TO MAKE HISTORY

Secretary Daniels Tells Atlanta Audience Address Will Bring Proper Results.

"THE MOBILE DECLARATION"

Declared President's Speech Will Go Down into History Written in Flaming Red Letters—Underwood's Talk.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 28.—President Wilson's speech yesterday at Mobile was epochal, it will live in history as the 'Mobile Declaration'." declared Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels here today.

"It was a logical and necessary addition to the Monroe Doctrine. That doctrine still is our pillar of cloud, but since the United States acquired Porto Rico, the Philippines and the Panama Canal Zone, there has been a growing suspicion that we were falling into the ways of some other nations; that we were using the Monroe Doctrine to keep other nations out of the Latin-American republics but would go in ourselves whenever we felt like it.

"The 'Mobile Declaration' effectually has put an end to any such thought, it has shown Europe where we stand, and it should allay suspicion for all time and bring us into closer spiritual relationship with the countries to the south."

Secretary Daniels made a brief stop in Atlanta en route from Mobile to his home in Raleigh, N. C., where he will spend all day tomorrow attending to private affairs. This programme was taken to mean that the Secretary and the administration at Washington did not regard Mexican matters as acute at this time. Mr. Daniels today expressed the belief that the situation in Mexico soon would adjust itself and that it would not be necessary for this country to act in any way except in friendly capacity. He impressed this opinion upon all with whom he talked.

Great Legislative Progress.

"At Mobile last night Majority Leader Underwood, of the House of Representatives, characterized the tariff and currency legislation undertaken in the present Congress as the greatest legislative progress of a decade. "I believe the country appreciates that fact."

"To the legislative programme of the present administration, however, should be added four all-important features of an executive programme.

"The first of these was the 'Mobile Declaration' that this country would not voluntarily acquire another inch of territory. The second feature of the programme was the recognition by this country of the Republic of China. America always has been a beacon for republics and will assist any republic founded upon constitutional liberty.

"A third feature of the administration's executive programme was the sending of Burton Harison to the Philippines with instructions which showed it to be the policy of this country to go forward with Philippine independence as quickly as can wisely be done.

"The fourth feature was the proposition of Secretary of State Bryan, now accepted in principle by a score of nations, for the holding of conferences prior to a declaration of war, with no increase in armaments during the discussion of differences."

As to a battleship programme, the Secretary of the Navy said the present administration endorsed the plan of Winston Churchill for a cessation in the competition resulting in overgrown navies and excessive expenditures for military establishments.

"No one nation, however, can control its own programme," he added. "The United States can not do so, neither can England. It will be necessary for the large nations to act in unison. I am sure the United States is ready to co-operate in any such plan."

DR. MURET IS GUILTY.

Friend of Hans Schmidt Proven a Counterfeiter.

New York, Oct. 28.—Dr. Ernest Muret, friend of Hans Schmidt, confessed slayer of Anna Aumuller, who has been on trial in the Federal court for counterfeiting, late today was found guilty.

Muret was held to be guilty on two counts, of making and possessing counterfeiting apparatus, but the jury decided he was not guilty of conspiracy with Schmidt to counterfeit United States gold fertificates.

The jury deliberated four hours following rather a stormy session of the court during which Schmidt, who was a witness, shouted that he and not Muret was the counterfeiter. Schmidt also declared Muret knew nothing about the murder of Anna Aumuller.

The arrest of Muret came about through investigations by the police after Schmidt's confession. A flat was discovered containing photographic apparatus, the ownership of which was traced to the pseudo-dentist and confessed murdered. Muret's arrest followed.

Muret was remanded until tomorrow for sentence.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

Charged With Complicity in Murder of Husband.

Gray, Ga., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Kate King, on trial here for complicity in the murder of her husband, James King, a wealthy farmer, late today was declared not guilty. The jury had been out since noon. Nick Wilburn, a farm hand, already has been convicted of murdering King and now is under sentence to hang.

Dr. Mary Walker.

The lady doctor who is permitted to wear men's apparel by a special act of Congress, is very unpopular with certain classes in her home town and was recently prevented receiving an application of tar and features by the prompt action of the police.

PRESIDENT GIVEN OVATION

Met by Large Crowds All Along His Route on Return from Mobile, Especially in North Carolina —Thousands Gather.

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Wilson returned to the capital tonight at 10:30 o'clock from Mobile, Ala., and immediately motored to the White House. He had nothing to say about Mexico.

On account of the many phases of the situation that had arisen in his absence the President was unwilling to say until he had conferred with othed administration officials what would be the next step by the United States. When asked if the United States would announce a new course of action to bring peace in Mexico or allow the previous repudiation of last Sunday's election to stand as his fixed policy, he said:

"I am not discussing Mexico at present, with anybody or making any comments on the situation there."

The President told his friends that he rarely had enjoyed a trip so much as he did his journey to and from Mobile. He got such a spontaneous welcome everywhere en route that tonight he had a pair of weary hands which had been pressed by thousands during the day as his train sped through North Carolina and Virginia. Once the President got off, stretched his legs and mounted the engine to see Engineer N. S. Hunter proudly exhibit his locomotive with its gilded American eagle on its headlight.

"Climb down backwards," admonished Engineer Hunter.

"I hate to back out of anything," laughed the President as he descended.

The President had given orders not to have the train make any unnecessary stops but it ran slowly through scores of villages where big crowds cheered as they got a glimpse of the executive. The President, however, rquested a stop at Culpepper, Va., the home of Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N., the President's physician and constant companion. Dr. Grayson said a through train had not stopped there in five years.

"The whole town will be there," he told the President, enthusiastically as he noted that 2,221 persons were found there in the last census. When the train did stop at Culpepper, there was only one man at the station and it was very dark.

"Do you know any one in the crowd," asked the President solemnly.

"Oh, yes," replied the doctor, somewhat crestfallen, "that's Cooney Hansborough—but he meets all trains anyhow."

At Evington, Va., the President gave the feminine contingent a basket of flowers.

Governor Craig, of North Carolina, and his staff paid their respects at Charlotte, N. C. The entire trip was made on scheduled time.

Would Not Speak.

Salisbury, N. C., Oct. 28.—President Wilson today made no comment on the latest developments in the Mexican situation, including the flight of General Felix Diaz to an American warship, when his train passed through here shortly after noon.

News dispatches were supplemented by official dispatches from Washington and the President read all without an expression. Two young men in a fast automobile raced the President's train for miles and Mr. Wilson seemed to enjoy the sight, from the

TO INVESTIGATE CHARGE OF GRAFT

A Dozen Subpoenas Issued for Men Believed to Know of Tammany Crookedness.

MAY GO TO GRAND JURY

Hennessy, Private Graft Investigator for Former Governor Sulzer, Tells District Attorney of Election.

New York, Oct. 28.—A dozen subpoenas late today were issued at the district attorney's office calling, it was said, for the appearance of men believed to have knowledge of facts alleged in statements made by John A. Hennessy in his campaign attacks on Edward E. McCall, Tammany candidate for mayor.

These men are said to have been mentioned to Assistant District Attorney Clarke today by Hennessy, graft investigator for Sulzer, as Governor, and now campaign speaker for the fusion municipal ticket headed by John Purroy Mitchel, for mayor. Hennessy, as well as Sulzer, has made charges against Tammany of a character that District Attorney Whitman deemed worthy of an investigation. Hennessy was the first to be examined in this inquiry. He did not complete his story during the hour and ten minutes he today consulted with Mr. Clark and will be further examined tomorrow.

Among the subjects of inquiry is the $25,000 contribution mentioned by Sulzer as having been offered by Anthony N. Brady, capitalist, through Judge Samuel A. Beardsley. Sulzer has stated he rejected this money and that it was then sent to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. Murphy last night said he received the money but returned it to Mr. Brady who since has died. One outcome of Hennessy's statements was a request by the prosecutor to Chief City Magistrate McAdoo to begin John Doe proceedings on Thursday, at the conclusion of which Magistrate McAdoo will submit a report from which the prosecutor will determine whether he shall submit the matter to the grand jury.

Stilwell Letter Made Public.

Stephen J. Stilwell, former State Senator from New York City, last Spring acquitted of bribery charges by the Senate, afterwards convicted by a jury, and now serving his sentence in Sing Sing, appealed to William Sulzer, Governor, for a pardon, and offered in return to expose the inner workings of "boss rule" in New York, "whereby Representatives in the Legislature are placed between the alternative of political distruction by failure to obey the boss or the violation of their obligations to the people."

Stilwell's offer to tell what he knew is contained in a letter today made public by William Sulzer. Sulzer is now in the thick of a fight against Tammany Hall in a campaign for election to the Assembly.

The offer to turn informer against Tammany was made by Stilwell on August 16th, three days after Sulzer had been impeached but weeks prior to his removal. In the letter to Governor Sulzer Stilwell asserted that he had been told in advance that Sulzer was to be impeached. In reply Sulzer sent Stilwell word that if he would make a confession along the line of his promise, he (Sulzer) had no doubt the people would urge executive clemency in his behalf.

"Some time in June," Sulzer's explanatory statement goes on, "a well known citizen who knew Stilwell visited him in the Tombs and Stilwell told this man that he had it direct from 'the chief' that Governor Sulzer was to be removed from office before the tenth of July, and that just as soon as Governor Sulzer was out and Glynn was in, the latter would pardon him, for Stilwell to hold his tongue and everything would be all right. The name of this citizen will be given if required."

Stilwell Wanted Pardon.

Stilwell's letter applying for a pardon, Sulzer continued, was brought to him on August 17th. It said in part:

"I have lost my professional position and my business, and opportunities have been destroyed, of themselves severe punishment; and, therefore, with the punishment I have received, I believe that justice has been satisfied.

"True, I have been promised by the agents of the dominant political power my early release. Word was sent me before the recent political agitation that the Governor would be impeached and my prompt release would follow.

"There have been other promises made prior thereto, of this same general character at several times looking to the change of my situation.

"Without regard to the good faith or otherwise, of those promises, I desire to say that I do not seek a release by such means, but because I believe justice in my case has been fully satisfied. Furthermore, I promise to further the ends of justice and the cause of the people in every way within my power and to show the iniquities of the present system of boss rule, whereby their representatives in the Legislature are placed between alternatives of political death and destruction by failure to obey the political boss, or the violation of their obligations to the people otherwise.

Was Also Threatened.

"I myself have been thus threatened with political destruction because I successfully fought for certain measures and against the dictation of the boss and I attribute my present position to that reason.

"I, therefore, desire to say that I regard it as my public duty to expose the venality of these conditions.

(Signed)

"STEPHEN J. STILWELL."

John A. Hennessy, Sulzer's former graft investigator, who now is leading a bitter campaign against Tammany, announced that he would make public a conversation he held with Stilwell in Sing Sing. This conversation Hennessy said was taken down in short hand with the aid of a telephonic device in Stilwell's cell.

Denies Part of Letter.

Ossining, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Stephen J. Stilwell, through Warden Clancy, of Sing Sing Prison, where he is serving a sentence for bribery, late today declared that parts of the letter given out by William Sulzer in New York earlier in the day were not contained in the original copy. Present at the interview with Stilwell besides the warden, were Eugene F. Brisack, a lawyer, connected with Stilwell's New York office, and State Senator McClelland, Stilwell's counsel.

Warden Clancy quoted Stilwell as saying, concerning the letter to Sulzer asking for a pardon:

"I won't have anything to say until after election. There have been insertions which I know nothing about made in the letter, the object of the insertions, being to make the letter a strong weapon. There are things in it I did not write and the letter as a whole, as printed, does not express what I wrote."

Stilwell, the warden explained, refused to go into details as to what parts of the letter he claimed were incorrect.

Concerning the interview between Stilwell and John A. Hennessy, which Hennessy claims was recorded by means of a telephonic device the warden said that it lasted not more than an hour. The warden promised to make a statement later regarding this interview but would not say when it mgiht be expected.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVER.

Pope Manufacturing Company of Hartford is Insolvent.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 28—Announcement was made here today that the Pope Manufacturing Company had been placed in the hands of a receiver. The company made motor vehicles of various descriptions. Col. George Pope, treasurer of the company, has been made temporary receiver and has qualified under a bond of $200,000.

New York, Oct. 28.—Local bankers familiar with the affairs of the Pope Manufacturing Company, said the corporation's troubles primarily were due to a lack of working capital. The company has some $1,500,000 of notes outstanding, some of which fall due in the next few months. It has not been able to meet the competition of other motor manufacturers and the bankruptcy caused no surprise in trade circles.

Boston, Oct. 28.—Ancillary receivership proceedings against the Pope Manufacturing Company, of Hartford, Conn., today were instituted by the New Departure Manufacturing Company, of Bristol, Conn., in the United States District Court here. Pending a hearing tomorrow, Judge Putnam issued a restraining order keeping the property intact.

While assenting to the receivership proceedings the Pope company denies it is insolvent, but says it has been unable to obtain sufficient credit to meet accruing obligations.

YOUNG MAN'S ESCAPE.

Recovering at Maxton From Live Wire—House on Fire—College.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 28.—H. Campbell McNair, Jr., who, after coming in contact with a live wire of the local electric light system, last Saturday afternoon, and taking a fall from the pole, is out and getting around on crutches. How he escaped serious injury or death from his 20-foot tumble is hard to understand.

The house of A. J. Cottingham caught on fire this afternoon, but was put out by Mr. J. B. Sellers, before the fire company could reach the scene. One of Mr. Cottingham's young sons, Arthur, a lad about three years old, was playing with a box of excelsior near the house, and decided to try what a lighted match would do. When the blaze ran up the side of the house he became frightened and began crying. A neighbor in the meantime had seen the fire and had telephoned in the alarm. The total monetary damage was slight, amounting to not more than $20 or $30.

The young ladies of Carolina College have been putting in time today riding around in a one-horse wagon, giving their college yell and advertising the Hallowe'en party that is to take place the 31st inst. This school, which is in its second year, is having remarkable success, there being about 60 pupils enrolled, with a faculty of 14.

MECKLENBURG FAIR.

Opened Yesterday With Address by Governor Locke Craig.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 28.—Under cloudless skies, with just a tinge of Autumn weather in evidence, with hundreds of people from Charlotte and surrounding towns, the presence of Governor Locke Craig and his staff and many other distinguished North Carolinians, the Charlotte Fair for 1913 opened today under the most ideal conditions. Every train today brought crowds of people, and each train was loaded heavier than the one before, indicating a record attendance tomorrow. The crowd was good natured throughout, and up until this afternoon nothing had occurred to mar the occasion in the least.

Governor Locke Craig will make the principal speech at the meeting of the Mecklenburg Just Freight Rate Association meeting tonight in the assembly hall of the Selwyn Hotel and it is believed that he will make some statements of especial interest and value to the people of this city and county. Governor Craig arrived last night from Asheville. Tonight he will meet the business men of the city and county and will speak of the freight rate situation.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER.

Philadelphia Honors Winners of World Series Games.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—Under the leadership of Mayor Blankenburg, Philadelphians of many different walks of life tonight united in a testimonial dinner to the Athletics, winners of the world's baseball championship. Governor Tener, President Hempstead, of the New York National League club; President Baker, of the Philadelphia Nationals, former Mayor Reyburn, and other speakers expressed their admiration for the sportsmanship displayed by Connie Mack and the players of the Philadelphia American League team. There were almost 800 diners at the banquet.

Nineteen of the 25 players who appeared in the series with the New York Giants were present. The absentees were Coombs, who is still confined to his bed; Houck, Orr and Daley, who are on the Pacific coast; Lavan, who is studying at the University of Michigan, and Pitcher Shawkey.

German foresters are experimenting with Douglas fir from the United States trying to find a variety which will combine the fast-growing quality of the Pacific Coast form and the hardiness of the Rocky Mountain form.

the opposition to the central bank scheme, that plan would be rejected, but that the committee would take advantage of the President's concession to reduce the number of regional reserve banks provided for by the bill from 12 to as low as 4 or 5. A compromise plan along these lines yesterday was suggested by Prof. J. W. Jenks. Under his scheme the profits of the Federal reserve banks would be pooled and distributed by the Federal reserve board among the banks pro rata according to the capital stock. The reserves would be pooled under the control of the Federal board. This, Prof. Jenks said, would unify the system.

New York, Oct. 28.—Frank A. Vanderlip, chairman of the New York Clearing House Committee, appointed to analyze the Currency bill, tonight said as his substitute changes in the bill are being considered by the Senate Committee, the committee had decided to wait for the Senate bill to be reported before making its report to the Clearing House Association.

Attack Vanderlip Plan.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 28.—The plan of President Frank A. Vanderlip, of the National City Bank, of New York, for a government central bank and the objections of bankers to the Glass-Owen currency bill, tonight were attacked by Representative R. J. Bulkley, of Ohio, member of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, speaking before the Economic Club.

Congressman Bulkley declared Mr. Vanderlip's proposal for a note issuing institutions absolutely managed by the government "shows how little merit there is in the bankers' objections to the so-called compulsory feature of the pending bill and how little their fear of government control really amounts to."

"Mr. Vanderlip," he said, "proposes a government central bank having branches which would perform the functions of the regional reserve banks proposed by the Glass-Owen bill. All the directors of his central bank were to be presidential appointees and they, in turn, were to choose directors of the branches. Here, indeed, is a system in which the banks would have no voice whatever. Yet Mr. Vanderlip thinks it would be acceptable to them, because he proposes to permit them to sell their stock to the central bank.

"The bankers have said they are opposed to being compelled to subscribe to stocks, but Mr. Vanderlip tells us that these compunctions about principle will fade if we only allow them to sell their stocks to the public.

"If there is danger in a government note issue, how can Mr. Vanderlip justify his proposal to set up a government credit machine? He proposes that government offices shall have full charge of lending other people's money. If there is danger of our thoroughly safeguarded note issue being abused in response to public clamor, what must be the danger of a government bank such as he now proposes?"

FINAL HEARING OF CASE.

West Virginia Coal Strike Situation Inquiry Resumed.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Final hearings by the Senate sub-committee, which investigated the West Virginia coal strike situation, will be begun tomorrow.

Senator Kenyon will conclude his portion of the inquiry relating to the control and operation of the coal fields on Paint Creek and Cabin Creek, involved in the struggle which resulted in violence and bloodshed.

Senator Kenyon, after considerable difficulty and delay, has secured an agreement for the appearance of C. M. Pratt, director of the Standard Oil Company, who, according to the testimony before the committee, is influential in the Pratt Land Company, which owns the Paint and Cabin Creek lands. Royalties paid the Pratts, operators on the cheeks, have claimed, forced them to operate their mines, virtually at a loss and made impossible compliance with the wage demands of the miners which precipitated the strike.

Mr. Pratt is expected to take the stand tomorrow. The committee hopes to conclude the taking of testimony and prepare a report to be submitted to the Senate when the regular session of Congress begins in December.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 28.—Bearing affidavits signed by Governor Henry D. Hatfield, Sheriff Bonnerhill and Jailers Thomas Martin and P. C. Russell, Pardon Attorney E. H. Pearson tonight left for Washington to lay the affidavits before the Senatorial committee investigating the West Virginia strike. The affidavits, it is said, deny the allegaton of W. H. Thompson, of Huntington, W. Va., who testified he had been placed in a cell with negroes and had no bed.

Former Governor William M. O. Dawson, of West Virginia, a member of the State prison board, will leave here tomorrow to make a thorough investigation of West Virginia's penal institutions. Mr. Dawson will take up the story told by John Spinks, a paroled convict, that prisoners in Moundsville State penitentiary were subjected to torture for trivial offenses, and minor infractions of the prison rules.

HOLD INFORMAL MEETING.

Grain Organizations Discuss Changes in Corn Grades.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Representatives of grain trade organizations in various sections of the country today held an informal meeting here to discuss changes in corn grades proposed by the Department of Agriculture on which a hearing tomorrow will be held by Secretary Houston.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the legislative committee of the National Association of Grain Dealers.

The government's plan involves an addition of two new grades of corn, making the number six instead of four and affecting the percentage of moisture to be contained by the various grades when marketed. The grain men object chiefly to the proposed change in the amount of moisture for No. 3 corn, with which the produce dealer chiefly is concerned. The government's proposed No. 3 would reduce this moisture from 19.5 to 17.5 per cent.

PLAYER IN TROUBLE.

Paskert Hits Boy With Machine, Crushing Skull.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—George H. (Dody) Paskert, outfielder of the Philadelphia National League team, struck and fatally injured 12-year-old John Ferrie late today while driving his automobile through a crowded street. The boy's skull was fractured and doctors say he cannot live. Traffic police reported that Paskert was not to blame for the accident. Later he was taken to police headquarters and held on a charge of violation of the speed ordinance. Tonight he was released on $500 bail furnished by his mother.

..Theatrical..

Seats go on sale this morning at Bunting's for last season's biggest New York dramatic success, "Little Women", which will be offered at matinee and night tomorrow at the Academy of Music.

The attraction comes from Broadway intact, as to both company and production, and under the management of one of the country's greatest in fact, world's greatest producing managers, Mr. William A. Brady. It is an attraction that should be greeted by two immense audiences. It is one that the press has lavishly praised and the management of the Academy of Music guarantees it as one of the rarest treats of the season.

Since the first announcement of the coming of this play much interest has been shown and already many mail orders have been received from surrounding towns. The seats are in demand and it is now an assured fact that crowded houses will be the rule at all performances.

Mr. Brady promises that the breeziness and charm of the familiar story have been faithfully maintained. He has been most careful in his selection of "types" to impersonate Meg, Beth, Jo, Amy, Laurie, Mr. and Mrs. March, the Professor, old Hannah, Aunt March and all the others over whose joys and struggles so many millions of readers have laughed and wept. Much attention has also been given to a faithful staging of scenes which are so well described in the book. Incidentally Mr. Alcott paid the dramatist, Miss de Forest, a very pretty compliment. After reading the dramatization, he remarked: "If Aunt Louisa were alive today, I believe that is just the way she would have written it herself."

Warner Feature at Bijou.

Again Warner feature day at the Bijou. This will, no doubt, be sufficient to pack the popular, handsome theatre today, both afternoon and night, because Wilmington amusement lovers realize that the weekly Warner feature is not only the biggest, but the most expensive thing in moving picturedom and that the Bijou presents three immense reels as an extra feature, while never advancing the price of admission, such always remaining at 5 cents. Today's Warner feature is the greatest of all. It is "Saved in Mid-Air" and every second of the presentation time of each of the three reels is thrilling. The story is an intensely dramatic one, with a beautiful love theme running throughout. The climax of all excitement and spectacularism comes when the heroine rescues the hero on a rope stretched at a dizzy height. A fine cast will be seen in the film.

Among the other big features on today will be the Vitagraph's "The Hindoo Charm," which is also a splendid dramatic, with two favorite artists in the stellar roles, Miss Clara Young and Mr. Maurice Costello. There will be other swell films and remember that the Bijou is just the cozy spot these days.

Four Reels at Grand.

Four great reels, each setting forth one of the best stories of the day, form the main part of today's rattling good show at the Grand. But this is not all. The quartette includes a superb special two-reel release and in the cast of another one of today's features will be seen two of the most popular Thespians in moving picture work, Miss Ruth Roland and Mr. John E. Brennan, who will appear in Kalem's big success, "The Hobo and the Myth". A swell educational photoplay is also a star today in "The Largest Duck Farm in the World." It is something decidedly out of the ordinary and will instruct, as well as highly entertain.

But the special two-reel release is the great feature. It is Essanay's "In Convict Camps." It is both thrilling and beautiful. It deals with a theme that is ever fascinating and numerous scenes are of spectacular type. A race between a hand car and an auto is one of the many thrillers that will be witnessed. The Grand holds to the same old price of 5 cents admission, any and all the time.

ANNUL TWO REGENCIES.

Prince Regent Ludwig Will be Made King.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—Bills today were introduced in the diets of the Buchy of Brunswick and the Kingdom of Bavaria for bringing to an end the only two regencies existing in Germany—that of Duke Johann, of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, over Brunswick and that of Prince Ludwig over Bavaria. The Bavarian cabinet this morning met and received the consent of Prince Regent Ludwig to the introduction of a measure to make him King of Bavaria in place of the insane King Otto who succeeded his father Ludwig in 1886, and never has known that he was a monarch.

HANDED WIFE A LEMON.

She Procures Divorce on Strength of That Fact.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 28.—Several dried lemons, a bundle of old clothes and a bouquet of faded flowers, sent some time ago by Ashken Shooshan to his wife, resulted in Mrs. Shooshan today getting a divorce on grounds of desertion. Both are Armenians.

Mrs. Shooshan told the court that she received the lemons, old clothes and withered flowers after she had asked her husband to send her some money. She explained that in the Armenian code the gift was interpreted as meaning "you look like old rags to me and I have no further use for you."

GRANDSTAND FALLS.

One Killed and Several Injured by Disaster at Ball Game.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 28.—Chester Taylor, private of Company L, Ninth United States Infantry, was killed, and 50 persons injured, several seriously, when a crowded stand today collapsed at the baseball grounds here just before play started in the game between the Chicago Americans and New York National League teams.

It is estimated that 500 persons were in the stand when the supports gave way. The company of troops was passing under the structure when it collapsed, but with the exception of Taylor, all of the soldiers escaped injury.

The office is second only in importance to that of moderator. Dr. Herring has been secretary of the Congregational Home Missionary Society for seven years.

Dr. Herring's duty will be to visit the churches and missionary societies throughout the country and act in an advisory capacity. He also will be chairman of the commission on missions which will control all church societies.

The office of general secretary was created in the new constitution last Saturday adopted by the council.

FIRE ON BATTLESHIP.

Gasoline Explosion on New Jersey, With Fatal Results.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 28.—Hemmed in by flames in the foundry room of the battleship New Jersey, tonight, when a gasoline tank exploded, one man received burns that probably will result in his death. Two others are in the ship's hospital, suffering from the effects of burns. The names of the three burned men were not obtainable. One of the seamen is said to have been holding the torchlight near the gasoline drum. The tank exploded. One man was unable to make his way through the door, and was not taken from the room until the fire had been extinguished. The other two jumped into Hampton Roads, and were picked up by the New Jersey's launch.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Insurance Matters Being Checked Up. Removal of State Departments. Negro Fair—Call to Odd Fellows—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—After hearing Fred Rutledge, of Asheville, and his counsel, Judge Murphy, in defense of Fred Rutledge & Co., of Asheville, State Commissioner of Insurance Jas. R. Young has continued charges preferred against Rutledge & Co., alleging irregular conduct as fire insurance agents that would operate to annul licenses as insurance agents, including rebates to insurers.

On Thursday of this week Commissioner of Insurance Young will give a hearing to C. F. Smith and M. R. Wiggins, of Kinston, life insurance agents, in proceedings looking to the cancellation of their agency licenses on the charge of procuring insurance of people unfit for insurance through collusion with medical examiners and the giving of the ages of the insured wrong. Cases are alleged in which a person 80 years old procured insurance as 50 years old.

The State Department of Education has begun moving its quarters from the old Supreme Court building to the 10th floor of the Commercial National Bank building where it will have temporary quarters until the old Supreme Court building can be remodeled to it it for accommodation of the Corporation Commission, Department of Education, Department of Labor and Printing, Department of Insurance and the State Department of Health. It is expected that the Supreme Court and attorney general can move into the new State building within two weeks. Then the work of remodeling the old building can be gotten under way, the contract being already let for an expenditure of $40,000 in this work. The State Department of Labor and Printing will move within the next few days either into the Commercial National Bank building or into the Raney Library building as temporary quarters.

Major W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture, has gone to Newbern for the fair there and will spend Tuesday and Wednesday there. He is much gratified over the big success that is attending the fairs throughout the State this year. This is especially true of the agricultural and stock exhibits.

The North Carolina negro State fair, which assumes this year the significant feature of being the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the proclamation that gave freedom to the slaves, opened today with due ceremony and with weather conditions that promise well. Wednesday and Thursday will, of course, be the big days, but the crowd today for the opening was large. Preparations are being made for a big "Old Slave Dinner", to be held on Friday out at the fair grounds at which it is intended to get together all the old slaves possible and set them down to a spread that will, quoting from the statement issued in getting up the affair, be "a splendid bountiful dinner that will remind of the olden days." The fair has agricultural exhibits, more especially, that are exceptionally creditable.

Grand Master M. L. Shipman, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, has issued a special call for the local lodges in all parts of the State to inaugurate on the night of November 6th strenuous campaigns for new members. In this way it is expected that the present membership in the State of 16,000 will be greatly increased. He directs that the noble grand in each local lodge shall name two capable aggressive Odd Fellows to captain the two teams in the lodge who shall work up new membership in competition and with due regard to the fitness of prospective members for the secrets of Odd Fellowship, Grand Master Shipman is impressing especially the importance of exercising the greatest care in the soliciting of new members and strict investigation by the lodge before accepting as members those proposed by the canvassing teams.

United States Senator Robert M. LaFollette, of Wisconsin, delivered his famous address on "Representative Government," here tonight before a large audience in the new auditorium. He appeared under the auspices of the Meredith College. He arrived at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Wilmington, where he delivered an address last night. The address deals in Mr. LaFollette's characteristic way with the great political issues of the day in this country in which he has made himself so clearly understood through his speeches on the floor of the United States Senate.

A. & M. TRACK TEAM.

Good Prospects for Season—Some of the Several Candidates.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—The prospects are very bright for a good track team at A. & M. this year. For the past month a large number of men have been out running in preparation for the annual cross country run, which will be held this year on November 8th, which will be the date the football team will play V. M. I. in Richmond. The men had a tryout at the fair grounds in order to select the men to stay on the training table in the dining hall, the course being six laps on the race track, or three miles. There were about 25 men entered, and the first 20 were given places at the table. There will be a larger number of entries in the cross country this year than have entered in the past several years, and the race promises to be hotly contested. Last year it was won by F. C. Smith, his time being 16 minutes and 45 seconds. Smith was graduated last Spring, which will leave the winning of first open to someone else this Fall. There are a lot of Freshmen out, and some of these seem to be very good, which promises well for the long distances in the Spring.

There are reported to be some fast men in college to take care of the sprints, hurdles, etc. McDougal, who is now out on the football squad, is reported to be able to clear six feet in the high jump, and to cover 23 feet in the broad jump, besides being good in the hurdles and sprints. The two Youngs, from Asheville, both appear to be exceptionally fast on the football squad and will no doubt prove point winners for the Red and White on the cinder path next Spring.

There are no doubt other good men who will come out in the Spring, who have not been heard from yet. The Techs were weak in the pole vault last year, and with a good man for that event this year, the prospects would be very bright for one of the fastest and best balanced track teams that has ever represented A. & M.

SECRETS LEAKED OUT.

Von Metzen Tells How Krupp Armaments Co. Got German Plans.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—The promised disclosures of the methods of working adopted by the Krupp Armaments Company in order to obtain an insight into the German government's pending contracts partly were developed at the resumption today of the trial of Otto Eccius and Maximilian Brandt, a former director and Berlin representative, respectively, of the Krupp concern.

Von Metzen, formerly the chief representative in Berlin of the Krupps, testified that his employers were aware of the nature of Maximilian Brandt's activities for several years. Von Metzen said that when he took his post in Berlin in 1909, he called the attention of the firm to the dangers of Brandt's "subterranean work," the nature of which he had explained to him. Von Metzen protested against the retention of Brandt in Berlin in this capacity.

Von Metzen's testimony was flatly contradictory of that given by various directors of Krupps', but he produced a series of substantiating letters between himself and tne firm.

The court afterward adjourned the hearing, and directed an immediate search of Von Metzen's house, in order to discover what further surprises he might have in reserve.

Von Metzen, who formerly was a German army officer, was in the employ of Krupps' for ten years. He said on the witness stand today that he had withheld his correspondence with the firm for the purpose of using it in suing Krupps" on account of his dismissal from their service.

"The Krupps," he declared, "will prove to the hilt that the entire directorate—or, at least, most of the directors of Krupps'—were aware of what was going on.

"Brandt has been exclusively employed in the preparation of secret reports. When he presented his expense accounts for money spent during his intercourse with army officers, the firm substituted a lump sum and entered it as 'expenses of representation.' I declined to put my signature to the vouchers."

TRUCK DRIVERS STRIKE.

Guarded by Police and Secret Service Men, Mails Are Delivered.

New York, Oct. 28.—Guarded by policemen and Federal secret service men, the United States mails tonight wre being moved about the city on normal schedules that for nearly 24 hours had been interrupted by 125 striking mail truck drivers.

Postmaster Morgan said there now was no delay in transportation between postoffices and railroad and steamship terminals.

Strikers and sympathizers today attacked several trucks. In Eighth Avenue they set fire to a truck, but the driver and the policeman on the truck put out the flames.

Among those arrested was Patrick Johnson, who said he was vice-president of the local brancn of the Chauffeurs' Union that is conducting the strike. Johnson and other prisoners were held by a United States commissioners, on a charge of interfering with the transportation of mails.

Officers of the Postal Transfer Service Company, which has the contract to carry mails, tonight asid that the men's demands, including union recognition, would not be granted.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 27.—Before the assembled student body in chapel this morning Acting President Edward K. Graham made the statement as to why the football game between the University and the A. & M. College at Raleigh had been cancelled by the University.

Speaking of the action taken by the athletic council of the University in regard to the playing of the game, President Graham said that although the contract between the two schools stipulated the playing of the game, the understanding that the University council had at the time the contract was signed was that the A. & M. was to conform to the five months' eligibility rule as to players just as the University has always done; and furthermore that the understanding of the University council was that the A. & M. also understood this stand taken by the University. However, stated President Graham, the contract in written form did not stipulate this, but owing to this understanding of the athletic council it was thought by them that it was better to call off the game when it was understood that the A. & M. did not intend to conform to the rule as to players as stated above.

President Graham said that he desired that the student body should know the facts as to the cause for the understanding the University had, and the stand they took.

The athletic council is composed of Professors Howell and Winston, of the University faculty, Head Coach Trenchard, Graduate Manager McLendon, and Mr. George Stephens, of Charlotte.

WILSON REAL ESTATE.

Rapid Increase in Values—Elder Gold Ill—After Negro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 28.—A marked instance of the rapid increase in value of Wilson county farm land is noted in the sale of the farm of Mr. J. W. Ellis, of Wilbanks, Monday for $2,500. There are 85 acres in the farm and four years ago the same land was sold for $850.

Elder P. D. Gold, the pioneer minister of the Primitive Baptist denomination, and one of the leading men of that denomination in the South, is sick at his home in this city. He was taken with a chill while attending the Black Creek Association last Saturday and came home immediately. In his 86th year, Elder Gold has enjoyed excellent health. His many friends throughout the State will join with Wilsonians in the hope of his immediate recovery.

Sheriff Howard Rowe, with two deputies, spent the entire night of Sunday following a telephone call which told them of the possible whereabouts of the negro Tom Debnam, wanted for the murder of Mr. Ross Flowers. The officers, after driving through flooded swamps for several hours reached the place where the negro was supposed to be, but the wanted man was gone.

J. HICKS BUNTING DRUG CO.'S NEW DEPARTURE.

Selling Medicines at Half Price Under Guarantee of Cure.

After two months of remarkable sales, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the enterprising druggists, say that their plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success they have ever known.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headacres, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling, caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co.'s new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

CIVIL SERVICE EMPLOYES.

Further Ruling on Overman Substitute—Carolinians in Washington.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Deputy collectors and marshals who have stood a civil service examination, if discharged by Collectors Bailey and Watts and Marshals-to-be Dortch and Webb, will be taken care of as fast as possible in some other branch of the government where the civil service law prevails. It is expected that these men will be given clerical positions under the collector of customs at Wilmington and other places of a like nature where it is possible to do so. This information was given Senator Overman today by Commissioner McIlhenney, of the civil service board. Under the Overman amendment deputy collectors and marshals may be discharged by the collector or marshal if these officials deem it for the good of the service. In other words, these gentlemen will have the appointive power in selecting their deputies.

R. W. Turner, C. B. Williams and M. M. Sawyer, of Elizabeth City, called on Senator Simmons in the interest of Mr. Sawyer's son who desires to be appointed a deputy under the income tax law.

J. E. Parks, Pikeville, who was appointed a steamship mail clerk to succeed Oscar Woody, of Person county, who lost his life on the Titanic, is spending a few days in Washington with friends.

John Small, Jr., son of Representative Small, has returned from school at Wallingord, Conn., because an epidemic of infantile paralysis broke out and the institution was ordered closed.

Representative Godwin returned from his district. He says the folks are in favor of the administration currency bill and everybody is for Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Godwin conferred with Senator Simmons with reference to the appointment of Alfred McLean, of Lillington, as assistant district attorney. It is not believed that McLean can get the place but he will be offered a position as special attorney for the Interior Department carrying a salary of $2,500 per year.

Col. A. B. Andrews and wife, Miss Mary Gibbs, Deso Mackay, and Corporation Commissioner Travis, of Raleigh, and Dr. I. W. Faison, of Charlotte, are here. P. R. A.

A man's idea of woman is that she is coy but that man is more or less coyote.

Having despaired of getting an office as a Republican or a Democrat, the only chance some men have left is to become a Progressive and keep on hoping.

Talking about your National "apple day," intended to induce people to eat more apples, it should be stated that every day and Sunday, too, is peach day in Wilmington.

The importance of many men is largely exaggerated in their own opinion, while the public estimate put upon some men no doubt gives them the surprise of their lives.

The Housewives' League has evidently dealt a body blow to the sidewalks display legislation recently pushed through the Council accompanied by so many pyrotechnics.

It takes two pounds of cotton to buy a pound of prime beef, and three pounds of the staple to purchase a choice cut. Even at the price of cotton there would be more money in raising cattle for the market.

One Texas county is to parade 5,000 turkeys, and while that is doing pretty well from a gastronomic point of view, no Texan who can cut the double shuffle would think of engaging in anything like the turkey trot.

North Carolinians ought to be able to see that the steamship companies will come to their ports if the State will furnish them with cargoes. The State can do that with proper rates so their ocean gateway can be reached by the production of the State.

It is on the suffragette programme for fourteen women to talk, one after the other, for twenty-four hours on a stretch. That means talking from morning till night and from night till morning, but two could probably do the talking as well as a relay of fourteen.

North Carolina fair was forced by stern necessity to consider the question of babies. Here we leave pinktoes at home and let them come from all quarters to look at pink noses of porkers peering through the pen. Our babies, we would have you know, are congenitally eugenic. — Columbia State.

Says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot: "For the benefit of contemporaries who do not know North Carolina, it is suggested that corn production down there is measured, not by the bushel, but by the gallon." Yep, but it is Virginia that is selling it by the gallon and would like to do so by the barrel, if it could.

Huerta's invitation to Gen. Felix Diaz to come to the City of Mexico must have been regarded by Diaz as the same kind of invitation the spider extended to the fly. His refusal to go to the capital indicates that Diaz would not trust Huerta a bit further than he could sling a Mexican mule by the tail. That is our idea of "a lack of confidence."

It seems that the extra session of the Tennessee Legislature also dealt extensively with the stock law proposition as did the recent extra session in this State, and that in the hurry of the session a law to "prevent stock running at large in the State" finally came through the mill "preventing stock owners from running at large." We shudder to think what would have become of our old friend, B. F. Keith, if a similar cog had slipped in the North Carolina Legislature.

At Swarthmore College on Saturday President Wilson said in his address: "I would like to believe that all this hemisphere is devoted to the same sacred purpose, and that nowhere can any government endure which is stained by blood or supported by anything but the consent of the governed?" A misprint in his speech made him say "by consent of the government," but a careful reader could have detected what the President really said. He simply enunciated the principle of our government which is a government by the people, but our President has a way of stating old principles in the strongest and cleverest language.

RAILWAY DEVELOPMENT CAMPAIGN.

The New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle contains in its issue of October 25th a leading editorial concerning the plans of the railroads to develop the agricultural and industrial possibilities of their territory. That able journal states that the announcements made by the industrial and agricultural commissioners of the railroads concerning their new Fall and Winter campaigns give a striking picture of the extent of their activities in developing the resources of their tributary country. We know something of this constructive activity in the Atlantic Coast Line's territory, and yet all the trunk lines are engaged in similar developmental work. The railroads are making themselves agencies for developing the country's resources and are spending thousands of dollars to promote not only the agricultural interests but the industrial potentialities as well. Let us quote this from the editorial referred to:

"Here special demonstration trains are ready to start on tour as soon as the harvests have been garnered and the farmer and his assistants have leisure to balance up the results of the season's crops. There the 'college on wheels,' attracting hundreds to its halting place on the siding of a country station, provides free instruction on the scientific treatment of soils, breeding of cattle for dairy or meat production, and the profitable growing and marketing of fruit and vegetables, and exhibits the practical association of agricultural institutions and transportation facilities. The auxiliary work of American railroads in building up nascent industries—often creating them in fact—developing latent resources and fostering the growth of the communities they serve, in extension of their primary function of transportation, is well worth attention. Its chief features have been appropriated and are being impressed upon other younger National systems, as in Russia, South America and Africa. Domestic appreciation of this work on the part of the railways as ministers of the country's commerce has, as yet, scarcely been accorded in just measure. To the railway administrations themselves, however, the value of the industrial and agricultural development department must have been sufficiently proved, as its establishment in one form or another is becoming universal, even on the smaller and weaker roads."

To some extent in the South this developmental policy of the railroad is pioneer work, and the first effect of their efforts is to get the public interested and ultimately fully aroused to the point of co-operating in the work. The railroads can only demonstrate, and if the people do not profit from it and get the benefit of the movement it will be their fault. However, it is said the railroads are experiencing concrete results in the increase of shipments of freight, seen in the statements of the enlarged business of the lines compared with the business of a few years ago. That is taken as the best evidence of the utility and value of the new policy, inaugurated some twenty years ago and more particularly emphasized in the last half dozen years in North Carolina. Of the work in the South the Commercial and Financial Chronicle says:

"In the South the movement in this direction has attained remarkable proportions through the harmonious cooperation of State and local authorities, agricultural and commercial bodies and the railroads. Sixteen States, ranging from Maryland to Texas, and Oklahoma, have joined in the formation of a thoroughly well-framed and equipped body, whose name, 'The Southern Settlement and Development Organization,' describes its comprehensive purpose. To place on the land settlers able to establish themselves permanently and to diversify the products of the Southern half of the union, while profiting by its rich agricultural, mineral and general commercial resources, is the first object to which this association is addressing itself. Almost every railroad, major and minor, covering this vast extent of territory, as well as the water-transportation companies, have been enlisted in the campaign of this young and energetic association. The Southern Railway, the Baltimore & Ohio, the Pennsylvania's Western roads, the Rock Island, the Missouri Pacific, the 'Frisco lines, the Norfolk & Western, and the Santa Fe, whose ramifications may be seen on the maps in this issue are lending their support through the personal membership of their presidents. State Commissioners of Immigration and Agriculture, in combination with county agents and the traffic managers and industrial and agricultural commissioners of the railroads, have set themselves to the task of accomplishing by united effort results for which many of the railroads have been for some years striving individually. State sanction was provided under the special charter granted by the Legislature of Maryland at the close of 1912, backed up by a special appropriation conditioned upon the raising of public appropriations by other States, or through private subscriptions, to an amount guaranteeing substantial operations. Already the influence of the organization has been seen in the diversion of immigrants to the South. Settlers who have found disappointment in Canada or the already occupied sections of the United States are being guided to the comparatively untilled acreage of the South."

Our valued New York contemparary goes at length into this policy of development on the part of the railroads and publishes a map showing some of the territory covered by their activities. As it is practically a new work in North Carolina, we must bestir ourselves and take advantage of it. We must not neglect the opportunity to get out of it all that there is in it.

THE CHADBOURN FAIR.

Everybody should go to the fair to be held at Chadbourn next Friday. It is a one-day fair, but the people of Columbus county will make an impromptu display of products that will speak volumes for the productivity of that fine agricultural section and give an impressive object lesson of the versatility of Columbus county lands. It will be strictly an agricultural fair, a veritable land show that will show what Columbus lands can do.

The Chadbourn fair is a Farmers' Union rally day, incidentally made the occasion for displaying the productive resources of the county. It demonstrates the progress being made by the Farmers of Columbus, and those who would like for once to realize the agricultural potentiality of eastern North Carolina lands and get an insight into their great possibilities for dversified agriculture, should take a run to Chadbourn and make sure of the opportunity of seeing the net results of intelligent farming in these wonderful alluvial lands of the east coast.

The Chadbourn fair depends upon the individual efforts of the farmers of Columbus county. They volunteer the display of their products, and in practically every respect it is a street fair which affords the farmers and their families and friends an annual date for meeting together and learning what each is doing with the splendid resources which belong to them. Sooner or later we may expect this impromptu agricultural display to be converted into a regular fair that will remain open from two to three days about this season of the year. It is a free show that is worth seeing.

Such fairs as that at Chadbourn indicate the public spirit, enterprise and industry of an agricultural community. In fact, the increasing desire to show what our lands are doing and are capable of, is a sure sign of aroused interest in agriculture, the most powerful factor in the prosperity of the whole nation. It is more largely so in North Carolina where population and business depends upon agriculture to within a fraction of 100 per cent.

"South Carolina is a fair State," says the Rock Hill Herald, "dotted here and there with country fairs and having one big dot down in Columbia where the State fair is located." Nothing more need be said to indicate the prosperity and thrift of agriculture in South Carolina, and it is the growing interest in fairs in eastern North Carolna that must be welcomed as a harbinger of the progress and prosperity of our large agricultural interests.

NEW PRICE ADJUSTMENT.

Reductions made in the price of a number of commodities in large manufacturing and wholesale centers are attributed to the effects of the Underwood-Simmons tariff. Although the new tariff has been on the statute books less than four weeks, New York financial papers say it has already been effective in bringing about a readjustment of wholesale prices in several lines. However, it is stated that whether or not the reductions, in many cases very small, will accrue to the benefit of consumers, remains to be seen.

It is especially noted that there have been reductions in the dry goods trade, piece cotton goods being off on deliveries after January 1st. When the wool schedule goes into effect January 1st, woolen dress goods heretofore 50 cents per yard will be reduced to 37 1-2 cents per yard. That is a considerable reduction and in instances like that the consumer is bound to get the benefit. Many fine and fancy woolens will be reduced from 5 to 9 cents per yard, but on fine French cotton manufactures it is said the price will be advanced on account of the increased price of raw cotton in the South. It is said silks will be lower, and on many other lines the tendency is downward.

One of the results of lower prices is that large orders are pouring in and there is a feeling of cheerfulness over the prospects for a larger volume of trade on account of increased buying.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A water basing point at Wilmington would benefit the entire State, but it will be seen that Wilmington men will have to finance the thing if a line is ever put into operation.—Greenville Reflector.

Tennessee's latest prohibition legislation limits "importation for personal use" to one gallon—which is just about enough to quench the thirst of a Tennessee Colonel for one day.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

"If anybody should take a notion to leave North Carolina we know of no better place for them to settle than in the State of Robeson."—Wilmington Star. Quite right brother Star. We have a great State down here.—Fairmont Messenger.

"North Carolina, a Land of Opportunity," is the title of an attractive publication that has just been issued under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture. It is overflowing with facts of an important character, facts dealing with the advantages in farming, diversified trucking, timber resources, mineral assets, fruit growing, live stock, etc. Its soils are elaborately described as also its climate. In fact, nothing as left out that will serve to enlighten not only the people from a distance who are ignorant of the immense opportunities the State affords, but also the people at home who have grown up along with these advantages and have come to regard them as nothing new or worth talking about. The publication ought to be productive of vast good for the State.—Charlotte Chronicle.

There are still regions in North Carolina where a man may live five miles from his nearest neighbor, and all these regions are by no means either mountain or swamp land. There is one in Bladen county. Editor Meares, of the Bladen Journal, recently traversed this "wilderness", as he calls it. Along the old Wilmington road in the eastern part of the county he traveled 10 miles or more without seeing anything nearer human than two wild hogs. After passing a crossroads store he entered an only less uninhabited section where one occasional specimen of the genus homo would tell him that Elwell's Ferry was five miles distant and another several miles further on would tell him that it was six. "It is just that this section has not got the people," comments Editor Meares, "and there are great possibilities, for after our county takes hold of drainage this sandy land could soon be given a soil by sowing peas and similar crops. It is the best kind of land for peanuts and grapes. With little work the best roads could be made, and by digging ditches two or three feet deep we have the clay with the sand already present to make excellent sand-clay roads." It seemed to him like Moses getting out of the wilderness when he emerged at last. We haven't the least doubt that all this sandy land will in time become as productive as large tracts of its kind considered equally worthless not many years ago have since become or else are becoming at a rapid rate.—Charlotte Observer.

AT THE UNIVERSITY.

Students and from Whence They Come—Other Campus Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 28.—The registration number at the State University has now reached 877, exceeding by 40 the total number of students ever registered in the whole of any year. There are over 100 more students here now than at any previous time in the history of the institution, and with the exception of the University of Texas, which is co-educational, the number of students matriculated exceeds the number of any other Southern college in the academic department. It is noteworthy that more than 90 per cent of this large student body are sons of North Carolina, coming from 89 counties in the State. Twelve counties are unrepresented; namely, Graham, Clay, Swain, Transylvania, Rutherford, Mitchell, Polk, Brunswick, Dare, Currituck, Stokes and Avery, all of which counties are located in the western or eastern extremeties of the State. There are seven counties that have only a single representative at University; namely, Cherokee, Gates, Greene, Jones, Moore, Washington, Watauga. Of the counties that contribute large delegations of students are: Mecklenburg, leading with 41; Orange, Guilford and Wake tieing with 34 each; Wayne, 33; Durham, 22; Johnston, 22; Alamance, 20; Granville, 18; Forsyth, 27; Buncombe, 27; Wilson, 17; Rowan, 16; Duplin, 15; Robeson, 14; Macon, Beaufort, New Hanover, 13; each; Cumberland, 12; Davidson, Wilkes, Union, 11 each; Burke, 10; Edgecombe and Iredell, 9 each; Yadkin, 8; Rockingham, Lenoir and Randolph, 7 each; Jackson, Henderson, Alexander, Chatham, Vance, Bertie and Cataret, 6 each;

The Home and Farmstead, a weekly farm journal of Georgia, in commending the aims and purposes of the Bureau of Extension of the University, among other complimentary things has this to say in an editorial in its recent issue: "At Chapel Hill there is acute recognition of the fact that an attic philosopher has values, but not this full value until he reaches and impresses the democratic multitudes. However worthful and valuable a man may be, the results of his labor ought not to be heremetically sealed in a glass case and set on a shelf in an academic workship."

"Resolved, That the Constitution of North Carolina should be so amended as to allow the initiative and referendum in State-wide legislation," is the query selected by the High School Debating Union of North Carolina to be discussed by the secondary and high schools in the State having membership in the debating union. A pamphlet containing arguments on both sides of the question is being prepared in Chapel Hill and will be ready for distribution to all the schools in the debating union by the first of November.

Active work has begun in the construction of the $50,000 dining hall of the University, the structure going up on the site of the old Gore residence. The tearing away of the Gore residence removed from Chapel Hill one of the residences of primitive Chapel Hill—more than a century ago. The first presiding professor made his home in this dwelling house and the building dates its existence back into the days when a single student made up the entire student body.

Five games yet remain on Carolina's 1913 football schedule. The dates and where to be played are: Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Winston-Salem, October 25th; University of Georgia, at Athens, Ga., November 1st; Washington and Lee University, at Lynchburg, Va., November 8th, and Virginia, at Richmond, Thanksgiving. The A. & M. game has been cancelled.

WITNESS IS MISSING.

Deputy Who Turned Up Case Against Veteran Moonshiner Leaves.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 28.—D. Lewis, formerly a deputy sheriff of Lenoir county, is a person much sought as a witness in a case which has been pending in the criminal court here for some months, that of State vs. George Jones, a notorious blockader who defied the laws of the State and Nation for many years, for illicit distilling of whiskey. Lewis, who lived at Pink Hill, was the officer who worked up the case aganst Jones, whose home is located directly on the line between Lenoir and Jones counties, and who is regarded as one of the most dangerous men ever engaged in the illegal traffic in this section. Following the arrest of the veteran moonshiner the deputy was told by friends of the former that he would be killed if he appeared in court against the prisoner. He left, and is thought to be in one of the counties south of here, but his exact whereabouts cannot be ascertained and the State's star witness has delayed the case from term to term, of course by failing to put in an appearance. Meantime Jones is locked in the county jail here.

Kinston is rapidly becoming a big livestock market, and is expected to be one of the most important distributing points in this part of the country in a short time. A considerable wholesalewholesale business has developed here during the present tobacco season, and droves of a score of horses and mules are being sent out in all directions to small dealers in the surrounding counties. Duplin, Jones and Onslow counties buy most of the stock. A dozen concerns are engaged in the business at the present time, including one or two who have located here from remote points this Fall. One local dealer receives shipments from the Western centers by express, explaining that it is a safer means of transportation and all things considered not more costly than freight.

Cleveland Bailey, colored, who pretended to be employed by a tailoring concern and collected advance deposits on "orders", was arrested here for securing money by false pretense. Bailey gave bond, and was immediately taken from here to Spring Hope, N. C., where he faces the same charge. He failed to give bond at Spring Hope.

INSURANCE INVESTIGATION.

Legislative Commission Meets in Informal Way—Work Later.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—The legislative commission for the investigation of the conduct of fire insurance companies in North Carolina in preliminary conference here today determined that each member of the commission shall spend the next several weeks in special study at home in preparation for the work ahead, and when the public hearings begin there are to be as nearly as possible continuous sessions until the hearings are concluded. It is thought that these will most probably be sometime early in the new year, possibly in February.

The members of the commission discussed the question of whether there should be counsel retained for the commission and the commissioners agreed informally that there would probably be necessity for such counsel as the work of the commission progresses.

Each member of the commission had received a personal letter from the State Department of Insurance in which Commissioner J. R. Young tendered his personal co-operation and that of his department in the work of the commission. This tender is accepted.

The meeting of the legislative commission today was of the most informal sort. Members present were Senator Victor Bryant, and Representatives H. A. Page, Elmer Long and A. F. Seawell. The absent member was Senator Barnes, of Pitt county, who was detained at home.

JOHNSON FACES "MATTY."

Hero of Many Games Driven from Mound by White Sox.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 28.—Walter Johnson today met Christy Mathewson on the mound here and Johnson's team, the Chicago White Sox, won over the New York Giants, 6 to 0. Johnson was master throughout, holding the National Leaguers to eight scattered hits, striking out eight and walking one, while Mathewson was taken from the box after he allowed two doubles and a single, netting two runs, in the fourth inning. Wiltse, who succeeded Mathewson, was pounded freely. The game was played in a snow storm.

Stork and Cupid Cunning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten it.

There is usually a certain degree of dread in every woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of child-birth. But, thanks to a most remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, all fear is banished and the period is one of unbounded, joyful anticipation.

Mother's Friend is used externally. It is a most penetrating application, makes the muscles of the stomach and abdomen pliant so they expand easily and naturally without pain, without distress and with none of that peculiar nausea, nervousness and other symptoms that tend to weaken the prospective mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are held up to veneration; they are rated as cunning plotters to herald the coming of a little sunbeam to gladden the hearts and brighten the homes of a host of happy families.

There are thousands of women who have used Mother's Friend, and thus know from experience that it is one of our greatest contributions to healthy, happy motherhood. DELEGATION BEFORE COUNCIL

Will Urge That Amended Sidewalk Ordinance be Repealed—Mayor Will Abide by Decision of County Solicitor.

When the City Council meets in regular weekly session this morning it is very likely that it will have the pleasure of hearing from a large delegation, composed of both ladies and gentlemen, in protest against the amended city ordinance which, when it becomes effective, will permit the use by merchants of two feet of sidewalk in front of their stores for the display of goods, merchandise and wares.

The opposition to the sidewalk ordinance is very general and is not confined to any particular class of citizens. It is probably safe to say that a large majority of the people of the city prefer that the sidewalks be free from boxes, barrels, hardware, chicken coops, show cases, etc., which a few years ago marred the appearance of the streets.

A great many of the merchants, some say as many as 50 per cent. of those in the downtown district, prefer to see the sidewalks kept clear of all obstructions. Two merchants called at the Mayor's office at the same time Monday to commend him for his stand in opposition to the ordinance and to assure him of their support in his fight against the measure. One of the merchants went so far as to say that he would get up a petition from the merchants in the downtown district protesting against the privilege and would have it before Council this morning, if possible. Other merchants have called upon the Mayor to assure him of their support.

The newly organized Housewives' League has gone on record as strongly opposed to the display of foodstuffs on the sidewalks and have declared a boycott on those merchants who take advantage of the privilege given them under the ordinance. Representatives of this organization and of North Carolina Sorosis may appear before Council this morning to urge reconsideration of the amended ordinance.

Mayor Moore stated yesterday that he would be governed entirely by the opinion of County Solicitor Geo. L. Peschau on the question of whether or not the police should respect the amended ordinance rather than the common law for nuisance for obstructing the sidewalks. He said that he recognized that Mr. Peschau was the legal adviser of the police department and that if he advised that the police must allow the use of the sidewalks under the ordinance that he would not require them to prevent the merchants from using the privilege.

A local attorney not directly interested in the matter either way stated yesterday that while the particular point in question—the right of merchants to use a portion of the sidewalks for the display of their goods—had never been passed upon by the North Carolina Supreme Court so far as he was able to find, yet there had been some cases before the court in which practically the same principle was involved and in these the court held that the municipal authorities have considerable discretionary powers. He cited the case of Small vs. the town of Edenton, in 146 N. C., in which the plaintiff sought an injunction against the town authorities enjoining them from preventing him from putting up awning posts on the sidewalks in front of his store. The court, in the opinion, discusses the powers of a municipality to regulate the manner in which the streets should be used and says: "Such local matters are properly left to the people of a self-governing community to be decided and determined by them for themselves, and not by a judge nor court for them."

The attorney quoted also cited the case of Tate against the city of Greensboro which was with regard to the powers of the Board of Aldermen to require the removal of trees from the sidewalks as a health measure, the same principle of the right of the local body to govern for the community applying in this case. One of the citations in the opinion in the Edenton case is relative to an ordinance in Philadelphia that grants a certain number of feet to merchants. This ordinance, it seems, had been upheld, the right to permit the use of sidewalks being left to the discretion of the governing body of the city.

Authorities differ on the particular question at issue in the several States where the point has been decided. Some hold that the municipality has this right, while others hold that it has not. It is generally admitted here among the lawyers and laymen alike that the point is a close one.

FUNERAL OF MR. BONITZ.

Services Will be Held from St. Paul's Church This Morning.

The funeral of Mr. John Henry William Bonitz, Sr., whose death occurred at the family home, No. 322 South Fifth street, Monday evening after an illness of some time, will be held from St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, of which he was a member, at 11 o'clock this morning, conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. B. Clausen. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Many friends in Wilmington and elsewhere learned yesterday with infinite sorrow of the passing of Mr. Bonitz, who was one of Wilmington's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens. Hundreds of friends called yesterday and last night at the grief-stricken home to offer their condolences.

Mrs. Emelia Helbig, of Lynchburg, Va., a sister of Mr. Bonitz, and her son, Mr. W. Bonitz Helbig, arrived last night to attend the funeral. Mrs. I. B. Andrews, of Pensacola, Fla., a daughter, also arrived last night. With the exception of Mrs. Andrews all the children were at the bedside of Mr. Bonitz when the end came.

MISSIONARY HERE.

Rev. Lacy I. Moffett, of China, in City on Farewell Visit.

Rev. Lacy I. Moffett, of Kiangyin, China, one of the missionaries of the First Presbyterian church of this city, arrived yesterday morning for a farewell visit to the church and to Wilmington. He will sail for China in a few weeks via San Francisco. He is the guest of Mr. James Sprunt. He will only be here two days. Tonight he will deliver an address in the Sunday School room of the First Presbyterian church. All interested in missionary work among the Chinese are cordially invited to attend.

Capt. E. A. Metts Resigns.

Finding that it interfered too much with his business, Capt. E. A. Metts has tendered his resignation as commander of the W. L. I., effective October 1st. First Lieut. Paul L. Cantwell is acting captain, pending the election of a new commander at a meeting of the company to be held in the near future.

MR. CHAS. E. BORDEN PASSES

Prominent Business Man of Richmond Died at Atlantic City Yesterday. Formerly of This City. Burial Here.

The entire community was shocked and saddened yesterday when a telegram was received here announcing the death of Mr. Chas. E. Borden, formerly of this city, but a resident of Richmond, Va., in recent years, which occurred yesterday at the Hotel Dennis at Atlantic City, N. J., where he was staying on a vacation in search of recreation and rest.

The remains will arrive on the train from the North this evening at 6:15 o'clock, and will be taken to the residence of Mr. E. T. Taylor, No. 509 Orange street. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mr. Borden was born at Goldsboro, April 23rd, 1861, where his early life was spent. Removing to Wilmington in boyhood he began working with the Navassa Guano Co., where he rose from a clerical position to chemist and afterwards became superintendent of the plant. At the time of his death he was vice president of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., with headquarters at Richmond, Va.

He was a man of many splendid traits of character, and was a faithful and conscientious worker in any duty he undertook to perform. His unusually affable and pleasant manner endeared him to all who were fortunate enough to be closely associated with him. True to every duty in life, and loyal to every tie that bound him to others, he was a man who invited respect and confidence.

He was a loving son, a tender husband and devoted brother. To those bound to him by ties of friendship he was always faithful to every trust reposed in him. In young boyhood he became a member of the Presbyterian church and remained a consistent member of this church until his death.

He was first married to Miss Annie Whitehead on April 30th, 1884. She died October 2nd, 1892, and later he married Miss Hattie Taylor, daughter of the late Col. John D. Taylor, and sister of Col. Walker Taylor, Mr. J. Allan Taylor and Mr. E. T. Taylor, of this city.

Besides his widow he leaves to mourn his death his aged mother, Mrs. M. E. Borden, of this city, two brothers, Messrs. J. C. Borden, of New Orleans, and H. L. Borden, of New York City. His eldest brother, Mr. Edwin Borden, passed away 16 months ago. Three sisters also survive him, these being Mrs. M. L. McLeod and Mrs. A. B. Lynch, of this city, and Mrs. E. R. Wooten, of Savannah, Ga.

In response to a telegram early yesterday morning Col. Walker Taylor left on the morning train for the North. Mr. E. T. Taylor also left last night to meet the remains. They will arrive with the body tonight.

The late Mr. Borden was a member of Clarendon Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, of this city, and elsewhere in today's paper is an official call for members of that lodge and all other Pythians to assemble this evening at the train for the purpose of acting as an escort to the body of their deceased brother.

The following telegram was received by the Star from its special correspondent at Richmond, Va., last night:

"Richmond, Va., Oct. 28.—Charles E. Borden, who died at Atlantic City today, came to Richmond from Wilmington several years ago as assistant to the president of the Virginia Carolina Chemical Company, and later was made vice president. He was one of the organizers of the Country Club of Virginia, and was an enthusiastic golfist. He was also prominent among the members of the Westmoreland Club, one of the exclusive clubs of Richmond.

"A telegram from Atlantic City tonight says: 'Stricken with paralysis at a prominent beach front hotel, last night, C. E. Borden, of Wilmington, N. C., grew gradually worse today and his death occurred shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Borden attended a boardwalk play house in the early part of last evening and he appeared to be in his usual health when he reached the hotel. He was stricken soon after midnight, and his brother, who resides in New York, was notified by telegraph. He hurried here on the first train, but arrived an hour after Mr. Borden's death.'

"The body was taken to Wilmington for burial this evening. Mr. Borden was suffering from a nervous breakdown when he came here ten days ago, and up to last night, his health had gradually improved."

NOT OUT FOR SOLICITOR.

W. P. M. Turner, Esq., Says He Isn't in Race—Other Rumors.

The air locally is full of politics. One can hear something of a political nature on every side. Incidentally, it might be stated that in almost everything that is done now, especially by public officials, there are those who profess to see politics playing an important part. As stated a few days ago it is quite likely that candidates for county and legislative offices will begin to announce themselves within a few weeks.

It was reported the other night that W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., had been spoken of as a suitable aspirant for the office of county solicitor and it was rumored that he might be asked to become a candidate. Mr. Turner said last night that he was not in any sense a candidate for the office and had not been approached and asked to become a candidate for the place. He said that he desired to say further that reports had come to him that he was trying to arrange a slate of candidates to be placed in the field in the approaching campaign, which report he says is without any foundation whatever. He further stated that he had not attended any meeting at which possible candidates for office were discussed.

For some days it has been rumored that Mr. Frank Herbst would probably become a candidate for sheriff and last night it was reported that Mr. W. A. McGirt, at present a County Commissioner, is being urged by friends to enter the race for this office. It is very lively that from now on there will be rumors and rumors of possible candidates for the different offices.

Suit Was Withdrawn.

In Superior Court yesterday a retraxit was entered in the case of Jane Sutherland against J. M. Solky. No complaint was ever filed, hence the nature of the suit is not known. This entry was made on the docket yesterday: "All matters and things having been settled and adjusted between the plaintiff and the defendant in this cause this suit is withdrawn." It was signed by Greer & Greer as counsel for the plaintiff. The defendant was represented by John D. Bellamy & Son, A. G. Ricaud and Herbert McClammy, Esqs.

PUBLIC PYTHIAN LECTURE

Supreme Representative Geo. W. Penniman, of Massachusetts, Here Tomorrow Night—Public Invited.

Pythians and their friends in this city and vicinity are anticipating with much pleasure the visit of Supreme Representative George W. Penniman, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Supreme Lodge Committee on Pythian Education, who will give his illustrated lecture, "The Story of Pythian Knighthood," in Pythian Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Penniman is a lecturer of note and will doubtless be heard by several hundred people in Wilmington as the public has a most cordial invitation to attend. Mr. Penniman will make three lectures in this State on his present trip. He lectured last night in Durham and tonight he will speak in Rocky Mount, coming on to Wilmington tomorrow morning. An effort was made to secure a lecture by Mr. Penniman some months ago, but at that time he was engaged elsewhere and could not come. Local Pythians are eager to hear him and will invite their friends to accompany them tomorrow night, feeling sure that the lecture will prove no less interesting to them.

Mr. Penniman comes under the auspices and by the direction of the Supreme Chancellor, and his lecture, which is illustrated by 150 superb stereopticon views, is said to be unique in the history of fraternal organizations and unlike anything else that has ever been given to the public. It is at the same time a first-class lecture, both as to descriptive matter and pictures and has been given in various parts of the country, arousing great enthusiasm on behalf of the organization. The lecture tells the dramatic and thrilling story of the friendship of Damon and Pythias, exemplified 2,300 years ago in Syracuse, Sicily, and upon which the ritual of the order of the Knights of Pythias is based. It also tells the evolution of Pythian Knighthood as a fraternal organization from the day of its inception in Washington, D. C., February 19th, 1864, to the present time, and is really a graphic and entertaining as well as instructive story of the birth and the growth of the organization, which is the third largest fraternal organization of its kind in the Western Hemisphere, and which at the present time has enrolled more than three-quarters of a million men.

Mr. Penniman has twice visited Syracuse, Sicily, in search of historic material and a proper setting for the story of Damon and Pythias. His last visit was made in June of the present year, and he was accompanied by an expert Italian photographer, the results of whose work were especially gratifying to Mr. Penniman and will in part be shown in connection with this lecture.

The lecture will be open to the public and will be of instructive interest not only to members of the order of Knights of Pythias and their families, but to their friends, and it is expected that the hall will be crowded with ladies and gentlemen who appreciate a high-class entertainment of this character.

WILL MAKE ADDRESS.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, of Raleigh, Will be Here November 12th.

As announced in yesterday's Star the principal address on November 12th, Boys' Corn Show Day at the New Hanover Fine Arts and Industrial Fair, will be made by Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He has written Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction, that he has definitely decided to be here on that date, and will make all arrangements to that end. He is one of the foremost educators in the entire country, and the fact that he will be here and make an address will no doubt cause many to attend the fair who would not otherwise do so.

It has not yet been determined where the address will be made, but it most likely will be made in the Court House as that is the most accessible place for the large crowd that will be here to hear him. The County Board of Education has decided to make this day a holiday among all the schools of the county, and all the school children and their teachers are expected to attend the exercises on that date.

MR. H. T. BAUMAN CHOSEN.

Assumes Duties as Assistant Secretary of Commercial Club.

Mr. H. T. Bauman was yesterday chosen as assistant secretary of the Commercial Club. He has entered upon his duties, and has already formulated several plans for making the club a real factor in the development of the commercial and industrial resources of this section. He is a man of energy and enterprise and is capable of filling his new position with honor and credit. His first work will be to take charge of the campaign for new members. With this idea in view he has made arrangements for the placing of a large banner across Front street in front of the temporary offices of the club in the Masonic building with an inscription calling on the business men of the city to become members of the new club. New members are being added daily, and it is believed that the membership will be increased to 500 before the close of the year.

Death of Young Son.

Friends learned with regret of the death of Schonwald King, the 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. King, which occurred at their home, No. 917 South Second street, yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. The body, accompanied by members of the family, will be taken this morning to Verona where the funeral and interment will take place.

HOW A BROOKLYN GIRL

Got Strong and Well Again.

Grace D. Lamb, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I was all run down and on the verge of nervous prostration. I could not sleep for pain in my back. In all I was a wreck. A friend told me what Vinol had done for her little girl, so I tried it. I noticed an improvement after the first bottle. I could sleep well, my appetite improved, and after taking three bottles I am strong and well again."

Vinol is the most efficient strength creator for such women. It is the medicinal elements of the cod's livers contained in Vinol aided by the blood making and strengthening properties of tonic iron which makes it so far superior to all other tonics to build up health and strength for weak, tired, ailing women. It contains no oil and has a delicious taste.

We give back your money if Vinol does not do all that we claim. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington N. C.

NO NEW LIGHT ON SUBJECT

County Solicitor Peschau Replies to Request of Mayor Moore for Advice With Regard to Sidewalk Ordinance.

Without shedding very much additional light on the perplexing question, County Solicitor Geo. L. Peschau yesterday replied to Mayor P. Q. Moore, who made request upon him a few days ago for advice as to the duty of the police department with regard to the amended city ordinance permitting the use of two feet of the sidewalk for display purposes.

The particular point in question has not been passed upon by the courts of the State and until it is the local attorneys, without exception so far as known, say that they cannot do more than give their individual opinion of how the ordinance may be construed. The communication of County Solicitor Peschau follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 28th, 1913.

"To the Honorable Parker Quince Moore, Mayor.

"Your inquiry, in reference to the use of sidewalks of the city by merchants for the purpose of placing, displaying and sale of merchandise, produce, goods, provisions, poultry, fruit, or other commodities, as impliedly permitted by an ordinance passed by the Council October 22nd, 1913, with your further request that I define the duties of the police thereon, would have received an earlier reply from me but for the fact that other duties have intervened and prevented my giving the subject the consideration I thought it required.

"With such parts of your communication as relate principally to departmental procedure in your relation as an agent of the corporation and not as an agent of the public, I must decline to express my views, for under my construction of the act creating the office of county solicitor and prescribing his duties, as advisor to the police department it was never contemplated that my duties were intended to cover such a situation. With the execution, however, of such laws and ordinances wherewith the police are or may be called upon to act, I concede your right as chief executive of the city, being made by charter ex-officio chairman of all departments with general supervision and control over the same and with the duty imposed of seeing that officers perform their duty, to secure my views as to possible advice that may be given by me to the officers of the police force in performing their public duties under the same. And this right the Councilman of Public Safety likewise has.

"The Council of the city is charged with the duty of making needful ordinances. Unless an ordinance is manifestly in contravention of its power, the proper method of testing its validity or invalidity is through the courts. While a particular ordinance may be general in its terms, as is the ordinance of October 22nd, it must, however, be construed in relation to other ordinances in force, and, where it can be done without doing violence to its evident meaning, as not intended to conflict with the laws of the land or to exceed the power of the municipality in the premises.

"The ordinance of October 22nd, impliedly licenses merchants to use two feet of the sidewalk in width immediately in front of and alongside of their property line for the display, placing and sale of merchandise, fruits, etc. Its provisions are general, and in the absence of evidence as to how this implied privilege is to be used, it is impossible for me to say what course will be pursued in each instance.

"Sections 191 and 192, of the revised ordinances of the city, now in force, provide that meat, meat products, fish, oysters or other sea food, game, fowl, fruit, berries, vegetables, bread or bakery products, ice cream, candies or other articles or substances intended for human consumption shall be kept not less than two feet above the place where exposed, unless such articles are covered, cased or stored so as to be inaccessible to the excretions of dogs. These sections, being law, will be enforced, and it will be the duty of the police to see that they are, and warrants will be issued as notice of their violation is received.

"It is not contended, I understand, that the city authorities have any general power to permit or license obstruction of streets or sidewalks, otherwise unlawful. The charter, so far as my investigation goes, does not confer it. Its provisions in regard to streets look to their betterment for the purposes for which they were dedicated or acquired. They do not empower the city to permit the streets to be diverted from their public use to private purposes by suffering individuals to obstruct and appropriate them. If, therefore, any merchant, acting under a supposed license under the ordinance in question, should attempt to appropriate any part of and opened an usually traveled sidewalk by the erection of any building, structure or stand thereon, I should advise the police that such party would not be protected by the ordinance of October 22nd, but that such party would be liable to indictment for maintaining a nuisance. Any permanent obstruction of the sidewalk such as would be caused by the erection of a building, structure or stand thereon has been held in this State to be, of itself, a nuisance, though it should not operate as an actual obstacle to travel. In commenting upon the word 'permanent' it has been held by the courts that it is no answer that the obstruction itself is no fixture. If it be permanently or even habitually in the highway it is a nuisance.

"In Costello vs. State, 108 Ala. 45, reported also in 35 L. R. A. pages 303 and 306, a leading case on the uses of streets and sidewalks, it is said among other things: 'An individual has no right to appropriate a part of the street to his exclusive use in carrying on his business even though enough space be left for the passage of the public. Nor has a storekeeper any right to use the sidewalk in front of his store as a sort of annex to his place of business. If a man's premises are not sufficiently extensive for the transaction of his business without encroaching on the street or sidewalk, he is bound to seek more spacious quarters elsewhere. The public convenience is paramount to the necessities of private individuals.'

"That there are classes of obstructions on the highways that may create public inconvenience, and are yet not unlawful, the courts have held. These, considered as a rule are founded on necessity or the public welfare, and are not germane to your inquiry or to the ordinance in question.' Illustrations of the rule may be found in the case of Costello vs. State (cited supra), and Augusta vs. Reynolds (Ga.) reported in 50 S. E. Reporter 998.

"While therefore, it may be possible under the ordinance in question, owing to locality, surrounding conditions and manner of usage, to use the sidewalks for the proper display and placing of goods, without creating a nuisance per se, I am of the opinion that the habitual and constant occupation of two feet in width of any sidewalk for the displaying of goods for sale, especially in the more or less crowded downtown sections of the city, probably would be held by the courts as a natural and appreciable interference with public passage and a nuisance per se.

WEDDING OF NOTE AT SNOW HILL, N. C.

Snow Hill, N. C., Oct. 28—On Thursday evening, October 23rd, in the Episcopal church at Snow Hill, there was solemnized the wedding of Miss Willie Myers Grimsley and Mr. H. T. Carraway, Rev. Mr. Felix, of Greenville, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with ivy, potted plants and native flowers, over which the rays of many candles threw a soft radiance. Before the bridal party entered, violin and vocal solos were alternately rendered by Misses Wilson and Pitt, respectively. Miss Pitt very charmingly sang "Because God Made You Mine."

At the appointed hour, the wedding march pealed forth under the deft touch of Mrs. W. B. Murphy, accompanied by Miss Wilson on the violin. The bridesmaids, Misses Bessie Lawrence, Ayden, Mary Bland Pitt, Tarboro, and Gretchen Taylor, Greensboro, all attired in white crepe de chine, carrying yellow chrysanthemums, gracefully wended their way to the altar, following them the groomsmen, Fred I. Sutton, Kinston; Sidney Grimsley, Greensboro, and H. L. Lassiter, Snow Hill, wearing full evening dress. Little Helen Dail, dainty in china silk, carried the ring on a white prayer book, while little John Neal, nephew of the bride, and Blanche Carraway, sister of the groom, served as flower bearers. Then followed the maid of honor, Miss Isabelle Flemming, of Oxford, dressed in yellow crepe de chine, carrying bride roses. The bride, beautiful in white satin, veil trimmed in marabout and orange blossoms, entered leaning on the arm of her father, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Proceeding from the vestry room, the groom with his best man, Dr. W. B. Young, met the bride at the foot of the chancel, and there, in English wedding ceremony, she was given in marriage by her father before entering the chancel for the solemnizing of the vows.

After the ceremony a brief reception was given at the home of Mrs. L. V. Morrill to the bridal party and a large number of invited guests, after which Mr. and Mrs. Carraway left for a tour of Northern cities.

The bride presented each of her maids with a gold bar pin engraved with their names as a souvenir. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. John D. Grimsley, Snow Hill, N. C., widely known in social circles, and deservedly popular among a large acquaintance. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Carraway, and is a prominent and successful young business man of Snow Hill. An unusually large and handsome collection of gifts was a tribute to their exceeding popularity.

—Henry Miller, colored, was fined $25 and the costs yesterday for carrying concealed weapons. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in another case charging him with firing a pistol in the city limits. There were no other cases before the Recorder yesterday.

—The cotton receipts at this port yesterday were 5,381 bales as compared with 2,837 bales for the same day last year.

Y. M. C. A. ACTIVITIES BEGIN

Gymnasium Work Getting Underway and Other Features of the Association Are Being Organized.

This week marked the beginning of the full activities of the Y. M. C. A. in its handsome new building, after a suspension of about a year while the new home was being constructed, and now practically every department of the institution is in operation.

The gymnasium classes have opened up. The Business Men's Class started last night, followed by the Intermediates, Employed Boys and High School boys. It is expected that all the classes will be full in a short time.

The membership committee, of which Mr. W. A. McGirt is chairman, is very anxious that the public accept the invitation to visit and inspect the new equipment. Circular letters are being mailed to the subscribers of the building fund reading as follows:

"My Dear Sir:—Through the liberal public spirit of yourself and a large number of other subscribers, the board of directors are now enabled to open to the people of Wilmington a modern and thoroughly up-to-date Young Men's Christian Association.

"The new building has a complete equipment and will compare with any association in the South.

"The directors are fortunate in having secured a very efficient employed force, each a specialist in his department and an active Christian worker.

"The advantages of the association are too numerous to mention in this letter, and we feel that no man or boy could well afford to deprive himself of its privileges.

"Your contribution to the building speaks for itself, as to your being interested in this important work, and we cordially invite you and your friends to visit the association in its new home at your first opportunity.

"All visitors will receive a warm welcome from the officers in charge, who will take pleasure in showing them around.

"In order to reap the full measure of success that is due the subscribers who have made this $100,000 building possible, it will be necessary for us to build up a large membership of men and aid in their development along all lines.

"The directors intend to have 1,000 members in the association by January the first. We are now making marked progress and hope to have the support of your membership at an early date.

"Respectfully yours,
"W. A. McGIRT, Chairman,
"D. K. HOWES, JR.
"W. W. KOCH, Membership Com."

An enthusiastic organization of the Grammar School Boys Class was effected last night. About 40 boys were present. A sumptuous dinner was served by some of the lady friends of the association. The boys tendered a vote of thanks to the ladies for their kindness. Mr. Edward Roberts, the boys' work director, addressed the boys on the work of that department, laying stress on the religious life and the all-round development of the boy.

Mr. D. H. Howes, Jr., chairman of the boys' work committee, took charge of the meeting and the following officers of the Bible Class were elected: President, Andrew Harriss; captain of Blues, Thos. Whitehead; captain of Reds, Douglas Sprunt; prefects, Mark Noble, William Roberts, Thos. Pritchard, Frank Russell and J. Garrell Skinner.

Following the election of officers, Messrs. Howes, Baker, Huntington, Price, Gray and Cline gave short talks on the importance of boys' work and the great possibilities for such in Wilmington. The meeting closed with prayer by Mr. Roberts.

A special feature at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday will be a song service to which all are invited. The service will begin at 4 P. M.

GUILTY OF PEDDLING.

Justice Harriss Holds Merchants Liable for State License Tax.

Justice Harriss yesterday held Messrs. A. Dlugin, H. Evanson and Nathan Shain guilty of peddling, but reserved his decision until today as to penalty for failure to display proper license. Through their attorney, W. J. Bellamy, Esq., they appealed to the Superior Court, and their bond was fixed at $200 for each. There are 12 others indicted on a similar charge, but these were not tried yesterday, as Justice Harriss did not have time to hear them.

They are now being held under bond. Those indicted maintain that they are not peddlers, and are not, therefore, subject to the license tax which the Revenue and Machinery Act requires that all peddlers must pay. They state that they have stores and have paid storekeepers' licenses, and that they have only been delivering goods that they have sold, as any merchant does.

The court, however, held that the goods which they were delivering were not sold from the store, but from the buggies which, under the statute, would make them liable for peddlers' tax.

SPLENDID CONCERT.

Large Audience Heard Oxford Orphans at Masonic Temple.

The little folks from the Masonic Orphanage at Oxford delighted a large audience in the chapter room of the Masonic Temple last night. The programme consisted of songs, monologues, recitations and drills in pleasing variety. Especially worthy of notice were the songs. There was chorus singing, solos, duets, all of these being rendered with a harmony of voices that was most enjoyable. The class of 14 boys and girls represent this noble institution in a most worthy manner, and reflect the splendid training which they have received from capable instructors.

The following children compose the class: Mollie Draughan, Hila Morris, Bessie Stevenson, Grace Gaither, Flo Neil, Vivian Smith, Jewel Brown, Nettie Brummitt, Rosa Forbes, Lyda Nichols, Carlton Wilson, Marion Benton, Sherwood Hobbie, Matt Ransom.

NEW FOLDER ISSUED.

Atlantic Coast Line Keeping Abreast of the Times—Double Track.

In the new current folder giving the passenger schedules of this road, just issued from the press, an account of the double-track work between Petersburg, Va., and Fayetteville is given. It is expected to have this work completed by the first of the year, and this will give the Atlantic Coast Line 387 miles of double-track between Washington, D. C., and Jacksonville, Fla., or over 50 per cent of the line. In addition to this the work is well under way on 63 miles of additional double-track between Selma and Parkton in this State, which will bring the total up to 450 miles. An article giving an account of the work published in The Star several weeks ago, is reproduced in the folder.

The folder also contains an account of the modern type of signals which are now in use on all of its lines where there might occur a congestion of travel. A recent test of the new interlocking devices near Rocky Mount indicated that the employes of the road are living up to the letter of the rules in their operation. A signal was set wrong at a difficult point for stopping at the foot of a hill on the main line of the company, and 33 trains, many of them of 40 and 50 cars, were brought to a standstill because the signal did not indicate clear track conditions as the orders read.

The booklet is illustrated with photographs of the signal devices. It contains besides the schedules much valuable information about this line which has come to be known as the Standard Road of the South.

Into State Campaign for Governor—Prophesies Calamity.

Taunton, Mass., Oct. 28.—National politics today was injected by Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, into the State campaign. Speaking here with Congressman A. P. Gardner, Republican candidate for Governor, Senator Cummins attacked the Democratic tariff bill and declared the rank and file of the Republican party would come into its own at the next National convention "on the basis of Republican strength in the several States and not upon the absurd indefensible plan now in force."

"As I look at it," said the Senator, "the supremacy of the Democratic party is a disaster and we must retrieve it very soon if we would escape the fatal consequences of a policy that never has failed to bring ruin upon the industrial and commercial structure which houses the multitudes of hard working, efficient men and women who have given the United States the distinction it now enjoys."

Speaking of the tariff act, he said: "It is either ignorantly or maliciously discriminatory and open the doors for that increase of imports which must, before a year passes, leave tens of thousands of laboring men and women without employment they now have."

"ASHAMED OF JESUS."

Rev. Dr. T. W. O'Kelley Heard by a Large Congregation Last Night.

Rev. Dr. T. W. O'Kelley was heard by a large congregation last night at the First Baptist church. He took as his subject "Ashamed of Jesus." The text was Luke 9:26. Jesus, he said, knew how hard it was for men to do what they wanted to do. The inference in the text is that men will be lost because they are ashamed to confess Him before men, he said.

"There is nothing about Him to be ashamed of. He is the Son of the Highest. He gave His life for our redemption, and we ought to be happy to confess Him. When He comes in His glory, then He will be ashamed of us if we have been ashamed of Him," said Dr. O'Kelley.

The meetings continue to grow in interest. There have been a number of professions of faith. The services are held twice each day, and are attended by large congregations. There will be services this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and tonight at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

William Hawes Arrested.

William Hawes, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Davis on a charge of having assaulted Joe Johnson, colored, with a knife at 11th and Orange streets Monday night. He gave bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance before Justice Harriss Friday when he will be tried. Johnson was cut in several places, and went to the James Walker Memorial Hospital for treatment. He is still in the hospital but will be able to be out today. Few particulars of the affair are known as both parties are reticent in speaking of it. It is understood that they had a dispute about some matter which resulted in a fight.

Meeting This Afternoon.

The New Hanover Branch of the Just Freight Rate Association will hold a meeting in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee that went to Charlotte yesterday morning to attend the meeting of the Charlotte branch of the association last night. The committee will return to the city today at noon.

Good Bowels Are An Aid to Growth

Growing Children Need a Mild Laxative to Foster Regular Bowel Movement.

As a child grows older it requires more and more personal attention from the mother, and as the functions of the bowels are of the utmost importance to health, great attention should be paid to them.

Diet is of great importance, and the mother should watch the effect of certain foods. A food will constipate one and not another, and so we have a healthy food like eggs causing biliousness to thousands, and a wholesome fruit like bananas constipating many. It is also to be considered that the child is growing, and great changes are taking place in the young man or young woman. The system has not yet settled itself to its later routine.

A very valuable remedy at this stage, and one which every growing boy and girl should be given often or occasionally, according to the individual circumstances, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a laxative and tonic combined, so mild that it is given to little babies, and yet equally effective in the most robust constitution. At the first sign of a tendency to constipation give a small dose of Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring, and prompt action will follow in the morning. It not only acts on the stomach and bowels but its tonic properties build up and strengthen the system generally, which is an opinion shared by Mr. John Dey, of Bloomfield, N. J. He has a large family and at ages where the growth and development must be watched. Little Marie has thrived especially well on Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Dey considers it the right laxative for young and old and has found none better for young children.

MARIE DEY.

The use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will teach you to avoid cathartics, salts and pills as they are too harsh for the majority and their effect is only temporary. Syrup Pepsin brings permanent results, and it can be conveniently obtained of any nearby druggist at 50 cents and one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

COTTON CONTINUES NERVOUS

The Market Showed Much Nervousness and Irregularity During Day's Selling—Bad Weather Reports.

New York, Oct. 28.—The cotton market showed continued nervousness and irregularity during today's trading.

Bad weather reports and bullish crop estimates checked selling on an early decline, but failed to create enough aggressive buying to cause a fil recovery, and while the final tone was steady last prices were still 5 to 10 points under the closing figures of last night.

There was considerable pressure against the market at the opening. Cables were colorless, but there was a renewal of foreign straddle selling and scattered dealing or liquidation, while the selling was also encouraged by rather a bearish private review of Texas and Oklahoma conditions. First prices were 5 points lower on October and from 13 to 17 points lower on later months, and the market sold about 12 to 19 points below last night's final during the early trading.

This decline seemed sufficient to attract considerable covering. The market steadied in consequence, and later rallied 8 or 10 points from the lowest on a renewal of bull support, a moderate demand from trade sources and covering by early sellers, who were influenced by the unfavorable weather forecasts and rumors that prominent London statisticians estimated the American crop at 13,800,000 bales, and the probable world's requirements at 14,500,000 bales. There were also several other estimates ranging from 13,728,000 up ot 13,850,000 bales, including linters, but the market remained quiet, as though waiting for fresh developments, with reference to the Southern spot situation. The official weather forecast was for freezing temperatures in the Western belt, following further rain or snow.

Spot, quiet. Middling uplands, 14.50; middling gulf, 14.75; sales, 800.

The cotton future market closed steady.

UNITED STATES STEEL EARNING

Amounted to Over Forty Million for the Quarter.

New York, Oct. 28.—Earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for the third quarter of the calendar year today show a marked decrease compared with preceding quarter, but are far in excess of corresponding quarter in 1912.

Exclusive of interest on outstanding bonds of subsidiary companies, earnings were $40,933,531; total income $38,450,400. These figures are from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 under recent estimates and compare with $43,721,633 and $41,219,813 respectively for the June quarter. The gain in earnings and total income over the third quarter of last year amounts in round figures to $8,350,000. Surplus for the quarter is $11,348,778 as against $13,619,365 in June and $2,434,801 in the third quarter last year.

Analyzing the earnings of July, August and September, it is seen that none of these months compared favorably with the three months of the second quarter. This is in line with general trade reports pointing toward a moderate recession.

The usual dividends were declared, 1 3-4 per cent on preferred shares and 1 1-4 on the common, involving an outlay of $12,658,700.

MISSING MAN FOUND.

Mr. Luther Winborne Returns From Raleigh to Home in Wilson.

(Special Star Corespondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 28.—Mr. Luther Winborne, who has been missing from home since Thursday, returned at midnight last night—Monday. He gives out no statement of his reason for leaving and is at his home with his wife and declines to be interviewed.

It seems that he read the newspaper reports of his disappearance in the Raleigh Times Monday afternoon—he was in Raleigh and immediately attempted to get in telephonic communication with his wife. He left the Capital City on the Norfolk Southern train and reached here about midnight. He went directly to the house. He is apparently well.

The mystery is still the talk of the street and rumors of every conceivable character are being exploited but they are merely rumors and no reason can be given for the peculiar action. He left without saying a word to any one and without even telling his wife he intended going away.

The Bureau of Forestry of the Philippine Islands will send tropical timbers to the U. S. Forest Service, so that their suitability for fine furniture veneers may be ascertained.

STOCK MARKET UNEVEN

Trading Dragged Along Unevenly Ending With Losses for Most of the Speculative Favorites—Stiffening in Money.

New York, Oct. 28.—Trading in stocks today dragged along unevenly, ending with losses for most of the speculative favorites.

The opening was irregular, with an easier tendency, and prices moved upward until the list ranged well over yesterday's close. In the afternoon this trend was reversed. Announcement that $2,500,000 South African gold had been procured in London for New York, held first place in the day's news.

This engagement of gold was forecast by the drop in demand of sterling. Later there was a tendency to revise first impresisons regarding the engagement of gold was forecast by the drop in demand of sterling. Later there was a tendency to revise first impressions regarding the engagement of gold abroad, and the fear was expressed that further bidding for gold by America might result in an advance in the Bank of England's rate of discount.

The Supply of stocks on the late decline apparently came chiefly from bears. This selling was accompanied by reports that the quarterly statement of the United States Steel Corporation would be less favorable than had been predicted. When the statement appeared it was seen that these pessimistic predictions had some justification for the earnings of $38,450,000 were somewhat smaller than recent estimates. Union Pacific showed a decrease in net of $320,000, and Southern Pacific of $105,000.

Further shipments of funds to the interior probably was responsible for stiffening of money rates today. Call loans renewed at 3½ per cent., and advance of ½. Bonds were irregular. Rock Island issues were higher and American Telephone bonds were lower. Total sales, par value, $2,400,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales were 274,700 shares, including A. C. L., 100; C. and O., 200; Lehigh Valley, 1,500; N. and W., 300; Reading, 53,800; S. A. L., pfd., 600; Southern Railway, 900; Tennessee Copper, 2,700; U. S. Steel, 78,100; V.-C. C., 200.

observation platform of his private car.

Large crowds were disappointed at nearly all stations when the President made no speeches and did no handshaking.

Wanted Quick Journey.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 28.—President Wilson today received many telegrams here congratulating him on his Mobile speech. He gave out nothing on Mexico. Although the President was desirous of a quick journey, he asked officials to alter the schedule only if consistent with absolute safety. As arrangements had been made in advance, the railroad officials decided it was best not to make any change.

Saw His Aunt.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 28.—The special train, bearing President Wilson to Washington, stopped here ten minutes this afternoon. Among those at the station to greet the President was Mrs. Woodrow, of Columbia, S. C., favorite aunt of Mr. Wilson. The crowd made a pathway for the President's aunt and there followed a touching scene among affectionate kinfolk. President Wilson leaned forward and grasped Mrs. Woodrow by the hand saying, "Why Aunt Selia, I'm so glad to see you," and a few words passed between aunt and nephew.

President Wilson made inquiry while here for a perfect baby of this county who had been named for him, but did not get to see his namesake.

At Greensboro.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 28.—President Wilson was greeted by cheers of more than a thousand people when his train pulled slowly into the passenger station here today at 1:25. Insistent and repeated calls were made for a speech but the President each time declined. However, he walked down to the bottom steps of the observation car and shook hands as fast as he could with both hands and the people who passed by him rapidly. There was quite a jam but the crowd was orderly. President Wilson was shown his namesake, Woodrow Wilson Melvin, one of the only two babies in the State that scored 100 in the Better Babies' Contest. When the train came in and stopped Mr. Wilson walked immediately to the platform and waved his hand in response to the cheers that went up. When the train pulled out he remained on the platform saying good-bye to the crowd. He was here 15 minutes and in that time shook hands with at least 400 or 500 people.

4,000 at Danville.

Danville, Va., Oct. 28.—President Wilson passed through Danville at a quarter to 3 o'clock this afternoon and was greeted by 4,000 citizens who crowded around his car and many of whom shook hands with him. The President declined to make a speech, declaring that he was too hoarse. A tobacco leaf and a basket of flowers were presented to him.

today began moving toward the Southern Colorado fields, where martial law will be established.

Telephone advices from Sheriff J. S. Grisham, at Trinidad to the Governor's office, stated that a large force of Greek strikers started at 6 o'clock this morning for the coal camps at Tabasco, Berwind, Hastings and Delagua, announcing that they would attempt to take the camps, and, if successful, would hold them against the State troops.

While ordering of troops to the coal field followed the failure of Governor Ammons' efforts to arrange a settlement, an additional reason for the action today was found in the list of casualties and property damage that have marked the 35 days of the strike. These strike incidents were summarized as follows:

Battles and skirmishes, 18.
Killed, 28.
Wounded, 41.
Personal assaults.
Buildings and bridges wrecked or damaged by dynamite, 11.
Property damage (estimated), $50,000.
Loss in wages (estimated), $2,500,000.

Advent of Martial Law.

Berwin, Colo., Oct. 28.—Three battles, the hottest fought since the strike of coal miners in Southern Colorado, began today, marked the advent of martial law in this district. One mine guard killed, four union men wounded, two seriously, two children of non-union men shot, one mine guard missing and a county marshal wounded, were the casualties of the three fights—one here, one at Tabasco and the other at Hastings.

The most serious fighting took place at Hastings, where the mine guard was killed and the strikers wounded. The mine camp had been hemmed in on two sides by the strikers, who climbed the steep hills of either side of the canon during the night, and at daylight began shooting into the camp.

Mine officials had been notified that Marshal Robinson, with deputies, was on his way to the mine camps, and when the fighting started they made a rush out of the stockade in an attempt to locate the marshal's party. Not more than 25 guards were defending Hastings when the miners attacked them and for almost an hour the battle waged in the hills surrounding the mine. Then the strikers, who numbered approximately 300 men, succeeded in driving the guards slowly back to the mine.

While fighting outside the stockade, Guard Angus Alexander was killed. Alexander had shot a Greek striker through the leg and another Greek fired a bullet through Alexander's head.

At Tabasco the two children were the only injured, but it was from this fight that the one guard was reported missing. About 100 strikers were engaged by an equal number of mine guards. While the battle was at its height strikers dropped a tin bucket full of black powder with a lighted fuse attached into the canon at a place cauculated to land it against one of the frame buildings of the camp. Water from fallen snow had gathered at the point where the bucket landed and the fuse was extinguished.

At about this time the mine guards reached the top of the opposite embankment and began to operate their machine gun, guided by a searchlight beam. Guards from Berwind, hurried to the aid of those at Tabasco and the strikers deployed along the hill to this camp after firing from the machine gun began.

Here the battle was renewed and continued until 9 o'clock. Late this afternoon militia men from Trinidad reached the camps in this territory and by virtue of martial government closed every saloon in the three camps. No attempt was made to disarm the guards. Strikers late today could be seen in the hills, within rifle range of the three camps and all were heavily armed.

the full text of the address be sent by the State Department to all legations and embassies in Central and South America.

Applied for Protection.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 28.—Gen. Felix Diaz applied to the United States consulate during the night for protection and was taken on board the United States gunboat Wheeling.

Jose Sandoval and Cecilio Ocon, Mexicans, and Alexander Williams, a United States newspaper correspondent who had made similar application to the consulate, also were taken aboard the gunboat with Gen. Diaz.

Gen. Diaz late today was transferred to the battleship Louisiana, Rear Admiral Fletcher's flagship. He was allotted quarters in the ward room.

Given Asylum.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Gen. Felix Diaz was given asylum in the American consulate at Vera Cruz and on the gunboat Wheeling at the direct instructions of the United States government, cabled a few days ago by Secretary Bryan to Consul Canada, instructing him to shelter Diaz if his personal safety were endangered.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 28.—The rumor was persistent here today that Gen. Ojeda and his Federal army had left Guayamas in two columns, one marching toward Tonichi in the Yaqui valley, and the other toward Hermosillo, the constitutionalist capital.

Huerta May Resign.

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—A report which gained much credence here tonight that General Victoriano Huerta had offered to resign the Presidency in favor of David DeLaFuento, former minister of communications and the candidate of the Liberals in the recent election, was later characterized as absolutely untrue by the Norwegian minister, Michael Stromlie, who had been credited with being one of the principals in the incident.

According to the report, Minister Stromlie, accompanied by several other European diplomats, called on President Huerta and pointed out the danger of complications with the United States, expressing a desire to help him avoid these. General Huerta was said to have responded that if the foreign governments would guarantee the safety of himself, his family and his property, he was willing to resign and would choose David DeLaFuente as his successor.

When seen late tonight the Norwegian minister said there was not the slightest foundation for the story.

He denied having seen President Huerta on any subject that had any connection with such action.

The American charge d'affaires, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, declared he knew nothing of it.

Seno Moheno, minister of foreign affairs, tonight was in conference for a considerable time with the President but the nature of the discussion was not disclosed.

Will Not Be President.

In the event that the Huerta-Blanquet ticket is shown to have polled a majority sufficient to be declared elected as now seems probable, Congress will declare the Huerta votes void and Blanquet will take the oath as Vice President and assume office as President, pending the calling of further elections.

This statement was made by the Mexican foreign minister tonight.

The clause in the constitution prohibiting the President from succeeding himself does not apply to the Vice President, Senor Moheno explained, and Blanquet would be eligible for election.

The taking refuge on an American warship by General Felix Diaz is regarded by government officials as an act of cowardice for which there was no justification. Diaz, it is insisted, was in no danger. Had he accepted the overtures of General Huerta he would have been treated with every consideration, according to Foreign Minister Moheno.

Conduct Unpatriotic.

Senor Moheno considers the conduct of General Diaz as unpatriotic, cowardly and inexplicable. Every guarantee was assured Diaz,the minister said, and unusual honor was shown him in dispatching a special train and putting the school ship at his disposal. He declared tonight he could not conceive upon what General Diaz based the fear which possessed him.

Jose Luis Requena, who was on the ticket with Diaz, said he had no positive information regarding the flight of General Diaz but if reports were true, Diaz undoubtedly had good reasons for his course. He said he had positive proof that the government was not acting in good faith in the matter of the election.

Among Mexicans there is a division of opinion, many believing that Diaz would have fared badly had he listened to Huerta's overtures. On the other hand it is asserted that the bearing of Diaz throughout affairs last year was that of a man lacking moral and physical courage.

Foreign Minister Moheno tonight expressed the opinion that no international complications would follow.

The American charge had no comment to make on the subject.

Diaz Rests Easy.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Oct. 28.—Mexico represented by her authorities here is heckling over the Diaz incident, Diaz is resting contentedly aboard the warship Louisiana and Rear Admiral Fletcher is wondering just what disposition Washington will ask him to make of his self-invited guest.

This was the net situation of the close of General Felix Diaz's first day as a refugee. Ashore the arrest of two or three persons of lesser importance served to sustain interest but there is one feature which is not generally known and that is the German consulate has become an asylum for a follower of Diaz, Rafael Alcolea, a brother-in-law of Diaz, alarmed for his own safety today sought refuge with Consul Gertz. The Mexican authorities apparently are ignorant of his presence there.

Friends of Alcolea expect to get him out of the country at the first opportunity and the possibility is that he, too, will become a refugee on a warship. No order has been made for his arrest.

Foth Rear Admiral Fletcher and President Wilson's representative, John Lind, reported the flight and subsequent doings of Gen. Diaz to their respective departments, but so far as is known, have received no answer.

Fugitives Are Relieved.

Gen. Diaz and his fellow fugitives d'splayed marked signs of relief when they reached the warship, but not greater than did the authoritles ashore, whose attifude is that Diaz has relieved them of an embarrassing position. They insist that they have no orders to protest and express the belief that Gen. Huerta is highly pleased that Diaz has chosen to eliminate himself in such a manner.

No honors were accorded Gen. Diaz when he went aboard the Louisiana, to which he was transferred from the Wheeling, but marked courtesy was shown him by the Admiral, who assigned him to his own mess and the other refugees to the ward room.

A long rest in the afternoon served to restore Gen. Diaz's nerves which seemed to have been badly shattered by the developments or anticipated developments since he arrived in Mexico. He explained that he had consented to take refuge in the consulate and then aboard a warship only after deciding that this "was the last extremity to preserve my life."

He added that he had no plans except to avoid being set ashore in Mexico. He was probable, he said, that he would establish a residence in Europe, although he thought he might spend some time in Havana on his own testimony he would not be welcome in the camps of the rebels and his presence there would probably mean his death.

Gen. Diaz finds himself in a more awkward predicament than most refugees, as there is no quarter of the republic in which he consicers himself safe. His wife still is in Vera Cruz, and expressed her delight that her husband now was safe aboard an American warship.

The Vera Cruz papers gave much prominence to the escape of Diaz, attributing his position to undue participation in recent events. The military authorities have reported to the capital, but have received no instructions relative to the case.

Battleships to Mexico.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 28.—The battleships New Jersey, Nebraska, Rhode Island and Virginia, will leave Hampton Roads tomorrow morning for Mexico. The ships carry a large quantity of ammunition and provisions enough to last six months. They will proceed "with all haste" to Vera Cruz and are expected to average 15 knots.

posed of speeches by Central and South American representatives later. At the dinner were represented Costa Rica, Bolivia, Peru, Panama, Brazil, and Argentine. That the bonds of friendship between the United States and countries of South and Central America would be strengthened by the Panama canal influence, seemed to be the undisputed opinion of all the speakers.

Eloquence of John Temple Graves, of New York, was the subject of comment among delegates to the Congress. He gained favor with his audience by swinging into line with the arguments of Majority Leader Underwood in favor of upbuilding of the American merchant marine and his advocacy of a larger navy to help protect the Panama canal.

Memorial to Sen. Morgan.

The memorial in honor of the memory of Senator Morgan and the suggestion that one of the forts at the Panama canal should be named for him, tonight brought on a general discussion of that subject.

Senator John H. Bankhead, of Alabama, in a speech announced that at the next session of Congress he would ask in a resolution that if one of the forts are named "Grant", another just as important be named "Lee." This also was the subject of extended discussion of the women's auxiliary meeting tonight.

Mayor Martin Behrman, of New Orleans, who was on the programme for tomorrow, this evening delivered his address, having been accorded a place because of his inability to be here another day.

Houston and Tampa are making strong bids for the next convention of the congress with sentiment seemingly favoring Houston because of its losing fight against Mobile last year. The next meeting place will be selected by the directors several weeks hence.

TO PREVENT EXPLOSIONS.

An Apparatus to Whistle When Mine Air is Wrong.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—An apparatus for the prevention of explosions in mines today was demonstrated by Prof. Fritz Haber, director of the Institute of Physical Chemistry, in the presence of Emperor William.

he demonstration was the feature of the annual meeting of the Emperor William Scientific Foundation.

Haber's apparatus combines the principles of the Davy electric lamps. It already has been tried in the government mines. Many scientists in Germany have been endeavoring to invent such an apparatus since the Emperor, in October last year, suggested the idea.

Prof. Haber has named the apparatus "the fire damp whistle." It consists of a pair of whistles, one supplied with normal air and the other with mine air and it gives an unmistakable sound when the danger point in the mine atmosphere is approaching.

SPREADING OUT—

Our business is spreading out. We are doing a much larger business than ever before. There must be some reason for this. Yes, it's the Flour that does it. Our BELLE OF WILMINGTON Flour sells on its merits. People who use it like it, because it does the best kind of baking. That's why they continue using it.

Bits of History.

JOHN ADAMS.

On October 30th, 1735, John Adams, second president of the United States, was born at Braintree, Massachusetts, which place is now called Quincy. He had been vice president for two terms under Washington. People then thought a vice president could not be elected president. But Adams broke away from this idea that was rapidly crystalizing into habit.

Our thoughts are largely influenced by habit. We have so long thought of something as hard to do that we deem it impossible. The things which are impossible to a resourceful man are very few.

Saving money is a habit, and to live well and happily on less than we earn is not impossible by any means.
